Fair Girls and Gray Horses.

To HUGH GORDON.

*For sake of the meet and the muster,
The hunts in the oak-scrub and plain:
For sake of the old days, whose lustre
May never shine round us again;
In mind of the head-ropes and halter,
The mounts in the dawn and the dew,
I lay my poor gift on the altar
Of friendship, and pledge it to You!*
