MASTER MISSIONARY SERIES

THE ROMANCE OF THE PIONEERS

Edited by W. P. LIVINGSTONE

Author of 'Mary Slessor of Calabar,' 'Laws of Livingstonia,'
'Christina Forsyth,' etc.

There are no stories so permanently fascinating for young and old, and therefore so constantly in demand, as those which relate the adventures of the great pioneer missionaries who have helped to civilize and evangelize the world. The aim of the 'Master Missionary Series' is to re-tell the principal of these stories in a new and attractive form. Several of the biographies are written by relatives; the author of the first, for instance, the Life of Livingstone, is by his grandson, who has followed in his footsteps, while Dr. Moffat's is also being written by his grandson, another missionary; and some contain new material of great interest. All are written in a simple, straightforward style, the design being to provide Missionary Biographies which will not only appeal to adults who love narratives of heroism clearly and concisely told, but will prove suitable as gift books for younger readers, and as text books for study circles, Bible classes, etc.

NOTE BY GENERAL EDITOR

ION KEITH-FALCONER takes his place among Master Missionaries in virtue of the circumstances which marked his dedication to the work and the influence he exerted. Of noble birth and brilliant scholastic gifts, possessing wealth, a lover of sport and champion cyclist, he relinquished the certainty of a distinguished career in England to pioneer a mission amongst the Muslims of Southern Arabia. In his brief span of life there he accomplished little, but the work he initiated continues, and the inspiration of his character and example has been deep and wide-spread. It is a question whether such a record as is here presented by one who has the privilege of following in his footsteps is not better fitted to produce recruits for the mission field than biographies more charged with tales of successful achievement.
