EDITOR'S PREFACE

Homer wrote of no more weighty subject than of a war between the Frogs and Mice; Virgil of a Gnat and a Pudding; Ovid of a Nut; and Lucian and Apuleius told the story of an Ass. May this trifle drown the cares and anxieties of the reader like a flask of old Falernian and thus serve to verify the claim of Erasmus that this is the chief property of Bacchus.

This reprint of a most rare and curious panegyric by some unknown Oxford or Cambridge four-bottle don owes its appearance to the desire of a booklover to double his joy by sharing a treasure with others of like mind.
