PREFACE

IN preparing this edition of the Acharnians I have been indebted throughout to the valuable and exhaustive critical notes and commentary of Dr Blaydes. I have also constantly consulted the editions of Eimsley, Müller, and Ribbeck; as well as those of Mr Green, Dr Merry, and the late Professor Paley. Some good hints are due to Mitchell, and many valuable notes to the late Mr Neil's monumental edition of the Knights. In addition to these I have had before me the notes on the earlier half of the play, left by the late Mr W. G. Clark, and published in the Journal of Philology, Nos. XVI—XVIII (1879–80): these notes are marked C. I am besides under special obligation to Dr J. E. Sandys for writing Pt. II of the Introduction; one of many instances of kindness and generous help from my old friend and colleague which I gratefully acknowledge.
