IN the present age of cheap publications, it has been thought that an edition, at a low price, of the Poems of the Author of "Dartmoor" might be received with general favour. The present volume contains, at the cost of three shillings and sixpence, the whole of Mr. Carrington's Poems, originally published at £1 : 15s. 6d. The Biographical Notice of the Author, and some of the Notes to "Dartmoor" and "The Banks of Tamar," have been compressed, in order to secure cheapness ; but the Poetry is entire.

Sept., 1848.
