ADVERTISEMENT.

THE following Discourses have been sent to the press principally for a congregational purpose. They were preached on the Wednesdays of Lent in two successive years, and several members of the congregation of St. Paul's, York Place, Edinburgh, have expressed to the Author a desire to consider the matters whereof they treat with more assistance than could be derived from the imperfect recollections of a single hearing. For their use principally the publication is intended. Should it have a wider range, and fall under the notice of any who have heard the Episcopal Church of Scotland misrepresented as uncharitable in her sentiments and semi-popish in her belief, the Author humbly hopes that upon a candid perusal of the following pages they may see cause at least to suspend their judgment, and to consider it as not quite impossible that the Episcopal Church in Scotland may still be Protestant in reference to all error, while she is Catholic in reference to all truth.
