RECOLLECTIONS OF
WESTMINSTER AND INDIA.

PREFACE.

A large portion of this book has already been published in the "Manchester Guardian," and I am indebted to the courtesy of the Editor of that paper for permission to republish it. The book has been thoroughly revised, and considerable additions have been made to it, the chapter relating to my Indian career, in particular, having been greatly extended. I have also included in the work a number of letters from public men, several of which, and notably those of Lord Randolph Churchill and Sir Bartle Frere, are of real historical importance.

"For, always roaming with a hungry heart,
Much have I seen and known."

—Tennyson's Ulysses.
