Dedication.

TO WILLIAM BAYNE.

*To you this hoary, haunted town,
Your old life of the scarlet gown
Doubly endears,
And happy memories must crown
Your former years.*

*Me no such ancient homage binds,
Yet here my heart contentment finds
In everything—
Good fellowship, the play of minds,
No wearying.*

*And what more can the heart desire
Than a fair friendship ne'er will tire
Till we're in shrouds,
Steadfast as St. Salvator's spire
Confronts the clouds?*

St. Andrews, 1902.
