THE WORLD, PP. 16-72

SONGS OF LIBERTY,

AND OTHER POEMS.

BY DR. JOHN MCINTOSH.

DEDICATED TO

THE LAND LEAGUES OF THE WORLD.

No shadow shall fall from a palace
To darken the poor man's home,
Engend'ring the madness and malice
That fired the Ephesian Dome.

PUBLISHERS' PREFACE.

It is with entire confidence the publishers present this volume to the public. The patriotic character and exalted tone of the Poems are such as to insure them a cordial reception by every lover of liberty in the land. The Illustrations are correct and life-like, and some of them were obtained at great expense. The portrait of PATRICK FORD, we have the privilege of giving to the public for the first time, which we feel confident will be a pleasant surprise to the hundreds of thousands of friends of this brave defender of human rights. The portrait was engraved by one of Chicago's most skillful engravers, from a photograph but recently taken, and presents the able exponent of the Irish cause just as he now appears in his full vigor and strength of intellect. The portrait of MICHAEL DAVITT we engraved from a photograph taken during his recent visit to America, and is the only correct engraving in existence, of the poor prisoner of Portland, as he now appears. There are thirteen historical illustrations in the work, and groups, in a small compass, portraits of a few of the noble people who are giving their life and liberty to the cause of Right and Justice.

The price per volume, bound in paper is 20c, and in cloth 30c. Booksellers, Newsdealers, and Agents allowed a handsome margin on orders of 50 and upward. Address
