THESSE lectures were delivered in Miller Chapel, Princeton Theological Seminary, October, 1915. They were subsequently also delivered at the Theological Seminary of the Reformed Church in America, New Brunswick, N. J.; and at the Theological Seminary of the American Mission, Cairo, Egypt.

"The harvest is not benefited by confounding weeds with wheat. Harmony is not enhanced by a premature recourse to synthesis, before due scope has been given to discriminating analysis. God is not honoured by attributing to His causation what He only overrules, in working out His sovereign designs. God is greater in permitting the exercise of free action, even if opposed to His own will, and in yet finally accomplishing His purpose, than if He were to exercise His sovereignty to the extent of rendering every counter-current impossible, and monopolizing the whole channel of history by the unchecked flow of His own volition."—S. W. KOELLE: "Mohammed and Mohammedanism."

"It surely is altogether false, if some, in modern times, assert that Islam has a mission in this world, namely, of serving as a preparation of idolatrous nations for the faith in the one true God. History most positively contradicts this assertion. Islam has never operated to prepare the way for Christianity, and least does so today."—C. H. SCHARLING of Copenhagen.
