Explanatory

THESE letters were written for the Hutchinson Daily News in the summer and fall of 1913, and are printed in book form without revision. They tell some of the conditions and characteristics of the people of The Near East as they appeared to a newspaper man who had no mission or object except to see the Turk and his neighbors before they were put out of business or brought up to date.

W. Y. MORGAN.

Hutchinson, Kansas, November 1, 1913.
