Dedication.

To my readers, who, after all, are the people who will make or mar this booklet, I dedicate the contents, reminding them that yarn is an essential in fabrication, either woven or narrated. Mill yarns are highly coloured; those spun at sea much more so!

PREFACE.

I HAVE found pleasure in my short hours of relaxation in jotting down my recollections of a most delightful journey to and through a land which, while not exactly flowing with milk and honey, has much that is good and beautiful to be found in it. As more or less of a simple diary I offer it to my readers, not as a specimen of literary effort, but rather in the playful spirit of one who would be glad if he could direct the faint rays from his candle of fun to shine for even a few moments upon them, and if there be born between the covers of this book a single smile, or be created a slight interest in this wonderful country, the labourer will feel himself more than repaid.
