TO THE READER.

THE present little manual is an attempt to point out to the visitors of Bristol, Clifton, and the Hotwells, in as concise and popular a manner as possible, their principal institutions, natural beauties, and topographical curiosities. It contains also a description of the adjacent Villages, Noblemen's and Gentlemen's Seats, and every other local information which may be considered interesting or amusing.

30, Wine Street, May, 1826.
