In Memoriam.

PROCEEDINGS

OF THE

Legislature of the State of New York

ON THE DEATH OF

Ex-President Chester A. Arthur.

IN SENATE:

FEBRUARY 4, 1887.

Mr. SMITH offered the following :

WHEREAS, Since the last annual session of the Legislature, the country has been called upon to mourn the death of one of the most eminent citizens of this State, ex-President CHESTER A. ARTHUR, and it is fitting that the Legislature should take measures for giving suitable expression to the sentiments of respect and esteem in which he was held by the people of this Commonwealth; therefore,

Resolved (if the Assembly concur), That a joint committee, consisting of three Senators and five Members of Assembly, be appointed by the presiding officers, respectively, of the two Legislative Proceedings.

Houses, with instructions to perfect and supervise arrangements for such a memorial service of the Legislature as will properly testify of the personal virtues and commemorate the distinguished public services of the deceased.

By unanimous consent, the PRESIDENT put the question whether the Senate would agree to said resolution, and it was decided in the affirmative.

The PRESIDENT appointed as such committee, on the part of the Senate, Messrs. SMITH, WALKER and PARKER.

IN ASSEMBLY.

FEBRUARY 7, 1887.

The Senate sent for concurrence a resolution in the words following :

WHEREAS, Since the last annual session of the Legislature, the country has been called upon to mourn the death of one of the most eminent citizens of this State, ex-President CHESTER A. ARTHUR, and it is fitting that the Legislature should take measures for giving suitable expression to the sentiments of respect and esteem in which he was held by the people of this Commonwealth; therefore,

Resolved (if the Assembly concur), That a joint committee consisting of three Senators and five Members of Assembly, be appointed by the presiding officers, respectively, of the two Houses, with instructions to perfect and supervise arrangements for such a memorial service of the Legislature as will properly testify of the personal virtues and commemorate the distinguished public services of the deceased.
