OLD MOTHER LIFE to her children doth say:—

“Go on with your duties, my dears;

On the right hand is work, on the left hand is play;

See that you tarry with neither all day,

But faithfully build up the years.”

To Fiction she crieth, “I pray you draw near,

You can help them my bidding to do,

Can mirror my smile, and enjewel my tear;

So enter and welcome—the children are here—

Indeed, they are calling for you!”
