LIFE OF ST. CLEMENT MARY HOFBAUER.

Being a short Account of the First Introduction of the Congregation of the Most Holy Redeemer into the Countries north of the Alps. With Portrait and Illustrations. Fcap. 8vo. Cloth, gilt, 2s. 6d. ; wrapper, 1s.

THE MUSTARD TREE; or, Catholicity a Proof of the Truth of Christianity. With a Preface by Mgr. BENSON, and an Epilogue by HILAIRE BELLOC. 560 pages. 5s. net (postage 4d.).

"Father Vassall-Phillips' essay in apologetics has such sponsors as would well befit a production of the highest intellectual lineage, and we may emphatically say it is in every sense worthy of them. The book will take its place at once in the front rank of our apologetic literature, as presenting the evidences for Christianity in a fresh and persuasive fashion well calculated to arrest the attention and compel the consideration of the modern non-Catholic mind, distrustful as it is of a priori argument and impatient of historical research."—The Month.

"The book, which gives us the fruit of more than twenty-five years' experience in dealing with the Spiritual difficulties of men, is eloquent with the eloquence of a soul on fire with love of God and souls. The style is flowing, bearing the reader along with little effort on his part. The argument is illustrated by many quotations from the Fathers. The volume may confidently be placed in the hands of a religious Anglican for confirmation of faith and persuasion of will."—Catholic Book Notes.
