PREFACE.

THE appearance of this little book is originally due to the demand which the commencement of each University year still brings with it for some Cambridge squibs published for the most part eleven years ago by a junior soph of Trinity College. The collection was taken in hand with the double purpose that those which are here inserted may be attainable in a convenient form, and that those which are omitted may perish utterly. Readers will excuse the ineffable youthfulness of productions written exclusively for the undergraduate market. The other pieces in the volume need, but cannot claim, the same indulgence.

October 1869.
