LIFE IN THE LEGION

FROM A SOLDIER'S POINT OF VIEW

BY

FREDERIC MARTYN

Now I've come to my own again,
Fed, forgiven, and known again,
Claimed by bone of my bone again,
And sib to flesh of my flesh !
The fatted calf's been dressed for me,
But husks have greater zest for me,
I think that pigs are best for me,
I'd go to those styes afresh.

(With Apologies to Mr. Kipling.)
