CHAPTER V.

CONCLUSION.

126. More stress should be laid on influence of aborigines. — 127. The Hebrews would naturally adopt the idolatry around them.—128. Uncivilized people have tendency to be alarmed at unknown surroundings. — 129. The Israelites would seek for aborigines as priests.—130. There is evidence of this in other countries.—131. Evidence of folklore cannot be neglected.—132. Must not be surprised if Hebrews borrowed heathen customs.—133. Summary of conclusions - - - - -	Pages 71-75
