PREFACE.

THE author of this little book would assure her youthful readers, that the songs and ballads of which it is composed, all have the charm of truth.

They were written on various occasions for the amusement and instruction of her own children, whom they so much interested, that she was induced to give them a wider range, hoping that many young hearts might receive from them the same pleasant influences.

The first edition being exhausted, earnest and repeated requests have been made for another ~~edition~~, which is now presented with some additional poems.

BOSTON, DECEMBER, 1851.
