THE PENNSYLVANIA STUDENTS' SERIES.

Under the above title it is proposed to issue a series of volumes containing material of interest to the students of Pennsylvania history, but not suited to the volumes or magazine printed by the Trustees of the Publication Fund of The Historical Society of Pennsylvania.

The means necessary for the production of the first of the series has been generously contributed by a few members of the Historical Society, who desire that the entire proceeds arising from its sale shall be devoted to the production of works of a similar character. The money will be placed in the hands of the Treasurer of the Society, subject to the order of the undersigned, who will select the material to be printed and act as a committee of publication. Changes in the committee will be made, when necessary, by the Council of The Historical Society of Pennsylvania.

The edition of the volumes will be limited, they will be sold separately, and the price will be regulated by their cost; that of the first of the series, "A Lenâpé-English Dictionary," is $3 net. Copies can be purchased by addressing the Librarian of the Historical Society, 1300 Locust Street, Philadelphia. Checks should be drawn to the order of The Historical Society of Pennsylvania.
