The Author's acknowledgments are due to the Publishers of The Century, Harper's Monthly, Harper's Weekly, The Outlook, and The Spectator for permission to reprint such of his Sonnets as were originally contributed to the pages of the periodicals named. With respect to the Sonnet "Does America hate England?" it is proper to say that it was written while the animosities enkindled by the Venezuela dispute were still flagrant, and long before the billing and cooing with which the international atmosphere is now so resonant had begun; in fact, a London journalist had at the time opened his columns to a solemn discussion of the question which gives the poem its title.
