PREFACE.

THE following short sketch of Harriet Green's life has been written at the request of her family, who thought that many of her friends, particularly in America, who have met her for only a short time, would value the little account of her work.

It is not written with the desire to exalt one personality or one special line of service, but with the hope that the earnestness and devotion thrown into it by yet another of the many witnesses who has reached the goal, may be a stimulus to those of us who still walk the highway of life, to press forward with the same whole heartedness and zeal; to be equally ready to hear the whispers and directions of the Heavenly Guide and "on Him sole depend."

SOPHIA M. FRY.
