ASHLAND HOUSE.

Fourth Avenue and 24th Street.

H. H. BROCKWAY, NEW YORK CITY.
PROPRIETOR.

AMONG the many first-class Hotels surrounding Madison Park, the ASHLAND is the most central (for business or pleasure) to City Visitors. The Elevated Railroads stopping at 23d Street station (in the midst of places of amusement and fashionable retail and wholesale stores), and 23d Street cars bring passengers to the door. The Fourth Avenue line of cars passes the house going down-town to the Great Brooklyn Bridge and General Post Office. Also going up-town to the Grand Central Depot (which is only ten minutes ride from the Hotel). The cross-town cars from door carry guests to and from Erie and Coney Island R. R. Depots, and Steamboats landing foot of 23d and 34th Streets, East River, and 23d Street, North River.

Passengers coming from or going to the West Shore Rail Road take the 42d and Grand Street Ferry R. R., known as the Green Car Line, which passes the Hotel at 23d Street and 4th Avenue.

One of the chief attractions of the Ashland is its first-class restaurant, second to none in the city.

The house being conducted on the American and European plans, guests have the choice of rooms with board, or rooms without board.

PRICES:

ROOMS WITH BOARD,	$2.00, $2.50 and $3.00 per day
ROOMS WITHOUT BOARD,	$1.00 and upwards.
BREAKFAST,	75 cents.
LUNCH,	50 cents.
DINNER,	$1.00

H. H. BROCKWAY, Proprietor.
