INTRODUCTORY NOTE.

The Rector takes pleasure in presenting to the Congregation this first Year Book of St. Andrew's Church. The book is published for the purpose of giving to the Congregation exact information concerning the affairs of the Parish and of the various activities organized within it, in the belief that fuller knowledge of what the Parish is doing will increase the interest and stimulate the activity of all its members. The record of results already accomplished is one which is fitted to encourage those who have taken part in the work, while at the same time it cannot but be suggestive of opportunities of service to any who may have remained inactive.

The Rector desires to express his heartfelt gratitude for the efficient help of his many co-laborers. He wishes to make special acknowledgment of the invaluable services of the Rev. Mr. Jocelyn as Superintendent of the Geddes Sunday-school, and of Mr. Dennen as Superintendent of the Fosters Sunday-school; and he is glad of this opportunity of expressing his appreciation of the very important work which is being done by Professor Scott in conducting the Seminary in Bible Study, on Sunday afternoons, in Harris Hall.

The Rev. Mr. Waters left us on the 1st of July to assume the rectorship of St. Andrew's Church, Detroit, taking with him our universal good wishes. The new Assistant to the Rector and Curator of Harris Hall has already established himself in our esteem, and is performing the duties of his position with singular power and efficiency.

All the organizations of the Parish are doing earnest and effective work. The Parish Sunday-school is vigorous and growing in numbers. The Missions at Geddes and Fosters are full of zeal. The work at the County Home is faithfully maintained. The Ladies' Aid and Chancel Societies are active and prosperous. The Woman's Auxiliary and Junior Auxiliary are hard at work. The Brotherhood of St. Andrew and the Society of Women Workers are untiring in their devoted service. The Fund for Missions and Charities has proven itself a complete success.

The Parish is growing in numbers, in strength and in activity. In two years, the number of communicants has increased from 364 to 504, and the number of families in the Congregation from 226, including 680 souls, to 351, including 1,014 souls. But our present position is only a vantage ground from which to go forward. With power comes responsibility. The opportunity is now present to the Parish and to every member of it for larger and fuller service than ever before.
