My dear Madam:

As the home is so inseparably connected with the house and as our comfort and efficiency are so greatly influenced by the kind of houses in which we live, much of interest and importance centers in the study of "The House"

Moreover, with the house, its evolution, decoration, and care may be associated much that is interesting in history, art, and architecture, as well as much that has a direct bearing on the daily life of the individual.

These lessons are the outgrowth of some class work in which the students and I have found pleasure and profit, so I am glad to pass them on with whatever of information and inspiration they may have for another and larger class of students.

If they help to a better conception and a truer appreciation of the meaning of the terms house and home, they have not failed in their purpose.

Sincerely yours.

Isabel Bevier
