FROM SHOPGIRL TO PEERESS.

Lady Dudley is probably the only peeress of England who has risen from the rank of a shopgirl to her present social eminence. Prior to her marriage she bore the name of Gurney, which is one of the most ancient in Norfolk. The young countess' father, however, met with business reverses, resigned his partnership in the Gurney Bank, and surrendered all his possessions for the benefit of his creditors. Mrs. Gurney opened a millinery shop in London, but met with scant success, her two daughters, who acted as assistants, ultimately becoming saleswomen in the shops of the modiste, Mme. Elise. About a year previous to Lord Dudley's marriage the now widowed Duchess of Bedford and her sister, Lady Henry Somerset, interested themselves on behalf of the two young girls, and removed them to more congenial surroundings. Rachel, the eldest, became a member of the household of the duchess, while the younger, now Lady Trowbridge, was adopted by Lady Henry Somerset. It was as the adopted daughter of the Duke and Duchess of Bedford that Rachel Gurney married young Lord Dudley.

This Lord Dudley is mentioned on page 961, History of Dudley Family. He was born May 25, 1867, and succeeded 7 May, 1885, his father, Wm. Ward, late Earl of Dudley, whose portrait faces page 776.

MY DEAR SIR,—I am very much interested in your "History of the Dudley Family," (a copy of which was kindly lent me recently,) my wife's mother having been a Miss Dudley, daughter of Mr. Sheldon Dudley of Roscrea. Can you supply me with a copy, or is it out of print. I can probably furnish you, if desired, with some additions to the pedigree as published in your 1888 edition which is that which I have before me. I have been making the pedigree copied from your work as complete as possible so far as my own immediate wife's relatives are concerned, and should be glad to send you a copy of the same. I am,

Yours very truly,

DEAN DUDLEY, Esq.

J. COVENTRY P ANSON.

The son, Rev. Wm. H. Channing, also married and had children, and a daughter of his married the well-known Sir Edwin Arnold.

Rev. George Gibbs Channing, p. 684, is the right name. You gave it as Edward on p. 753. On p. 684 you omitted several of the children. You speak, p. 684, of W. E. Channing and wife as living in Concord. She died many years ago, before 1860. There are several more grandchildren and marriages among her descendants since your book was published. Are you not mistaken in calling the son, Edw. P. Channing, member of the Suffolk Bar? He is a professor of history at Harvard now.

This valuable information was kindly sent me by the Dana family.

DEAN DUDLEY:

Dear Sir,—I was told by a cousin of mine, Mr. George Dudley of Colorado, that you are compiling the genealogy of the Dudley family. I should like very much to get one of the books. If you have
