- (1). Independence and Self-Respect constitute Morality.
- (2). We cannot say all that we think, nor yet
Do all we say : therefore true peace of mind
Lies in abstaining from all thought.

NOTE.

The materials for this book have been drawn from Mr. Fukuzawa's "Autobiography," his "Complete Works," and the Aitōroku or "In Memoriam of Mr. Fukuzawa"; and some passages have been borrowed from Dr. Murray's "Japan."

The chapter on the Keiō Gijuku may seem somewhat too long; but I beg the reader to remember that the history of the institution abounds in instructive incidents, and the character and principles of its venerable founder are shown with advantage in this chapter.

I am much indebted for some valuable suggestions to Mr. R. Kitagawa, editor of the Jiji Shimpō; and I have also to thank Prof. Denig for courtesies extended by him.

A. MIYAMORI.
