LAMB (Charles and Mary) POETRY FOR CHILDREN, Edited and Prefaced by R. H. Shepherd, Lon., B. M. Pickering, 1872. 12mo, 106 pp., with woodcut initials, head, and tail-pieces, a pretty volume, cloth. 3s. 6d.

"These delightful poems for children, in spite of their extraordinary merit, and marked superiority to other productions of a similar class, seem altogether to have escaped the notice of modern readers, and even of those lovers of Lamb's genius who have during late years rescued from oblivion all the waifs and strays of which the authorship is traceable to him."

The 'Poetry for Children' ranks infinitely higher, both in poetical merit and intellectual calibre, than the similar writings of Watts and of the Taylors of Ongar, which have obtained so world-wide a popularity.
