PREFACE.

---

THE following papers on Bristol history during the reigns of Henry VIII. and his three successors are chiefly founded on extracts from the account books of the Corporation, ancient deeds and other documents, and the minutes of the Privy Council. They began to appear in the Bristol Mercury of December 27th, 1902, and were continued at weekly intervals during the following four months.

J. LATIMER.

April, 1903.

PUBLISHER'S NOTE.

THE foregoing Preface and some alterations and additions to the original articles, included in a copy presented by Mr. LATIMER to the city, have been incorporated in this book by the kindness of the City Librarian, Mr. E. R. NORRIS MATHEWS.
