[1881]

“What we want to make us right is only Faith—a true, veritable, actual belief that God does all things; and that the thing He does is that good thing. Then all is right. What perplexes you is that Christ is speaking, and you are thinking wrongly. Is it not evident that we want altering, and nothing else?”

TO THE READER.

BE sure on taking up this book to ask God to bless it to thy heart. When thou findest something beyond thee or strange to thy experience, do not hastily condemn it. Rather pray the Blessed Spirit to show thee if it is agreeable to Holy Scripture, and welcome anything that stirs thee to think steadily over the only realities. On laying it down turn what has helped thee into a new motive for goodness and action, remembering that truth is both a power and a trust.

To facilitate the reading of this book in small portions, the subjects, as they occur, are noted in the side notes, and the first word of the different sections is marked by an initial letter.

"Said I not unto thee that if thou wouldst believe, thou shouldst see the glory of God?"
