Find Thyself Not Wanting.

Mark you—wise men sacrificed; heard:
Ye that live in thyself, hear the Word—
NO HONOR, NO GLORY, FROM YOU?
The time is drawing nigh,
When He will come from on High,
To be King of Earth.

King of all, King of Kings,—
Will establish His Kingdom for all things.
The trumpet sounds (ye Servants sing),
The coming of the Lord.

The way for Him has been prepared—
Christians have helped and have shared;
In building for His work they cared.—
Jew; find thyself not wanting.

Glory Hallelujah—Angels sing:
“O death, where is thy sting?
O grave, where is thy victory?”—
Infidel; find thyself not wanting.

Glory in Heaven: an enthroned King:
(To an Ox's stall—to Earth's highest thing),
Let all that can—sing, ring.—
Mocker; find thyself not wanting.

God's Messengers went before thy face,—
Showing to thee, faith; grace.
Salvation (little heeded), to save the race.—
Doubter; find thyself not wanting.

Any that hindered they shall fall—
Those who hear have heard the call,
And did what was bid, not part, but all.—
Find thyself not wanting.

Ye that abide in palatial homes—
(Keeping obscure, from worthy poor,
From those who struggle to endure),
Find thyself not wanting.

Or for own glory, for own praise,
Continue on their different ways.
Find thyself not wanting.

Wrongdoers.

When others have sinned—to look down, disown:
Let those without sin cast the first stone.
When one has failed—all that 's been said:
When they themselves were not yet dead.

You may slight the Teaching,
And make light of Truth—
Law of gravity will cease;
