CHAPTER I. INTRODUCTION . . . . .	I
PART I. PRELIMINARY STUDIES OF THE READING OF NUMERALS—BY INTROSPECTIVE METHODS
CHAPTER II. NUMERALS IN ARITHMETICAL PROBLEMS—FIRST PRE- LIMINARY STUDY . . . . .	2
1. Description of the Study . . . . .	2
2. First Reading and Re-reading Distinguished . . . . .	3
3. Partial First Reading and Whole First Reading of Numerals . . . . .	3
4. Individual Subjects Classified as Partial First Readers and as Whole First Readers . . . . .	6
5. Re-reading of the Several Numerals . . . . .	7
6. Re-reading by Individual Subjects . . . . .	9
7. Summary . . . . .	10
CHAPTER III. RANGE OF CORRECT RECALL OF NUMERALS AFTER THE FIRST READING—SECOND PRELIMINARY STUDY . . . . .	12
1. Description of the Study . . . . .	12
2. Range of Recall of the Several Numerals . . . . .	14
3. Range of Recall—by the Several Subjects . . . . .	16
4. Further Evidence as to the Purpose of First Reading . . . . .	17
5. Items of Recall Not Included in the Classifications . . . . .	17
6. Summary of Conclusions. . . . .	17
CHAPTER IV. ANALYSIS OF THE RE-READING OF NUMERALS IN ARITH- METICAL PROBLEMS—THIRD PRELIMINARY STUDY . . . . .	19
1. Description of the Study. . . . .	19
2. Objects and Nature of the Re-readings . . . . .	22
3. Duration of Re-readings . . . . .	22
4. Summary . . . . .	23
CHAPTER V. READING NUMERALS IN COLUMNS—FOURTH PRE- LIMINARY STUDY . . . . .	24
1. Description of the Study. . . . .	24
2. General Description of the Three Main Groups Used . . . . .	25
3. Main-Group Patterns for Numerals of Like Length . . . . .	27

I. First Reading of Problem 4 by Subject B and His Procedure in Solving the Problem . . . . .	41
II. First Reading of Problem 4 by Subject G and Re-reading the Numeral 1000 . . . . .	42
III. First Reading of Problem 1 by Subject W and Multiplication Direct from the Problem Card with One Numeral Used as the "Base of Operations" . . . . .	43
IV. First Reading of Problem 3 by Subject Hb and Re-reading the Numerals for Copying . . . . .	44
V. First Reading of Problem 2 by Subject Hb, Re-reading the First Numeral, and Subsequent Re-reading of Both Numerals for Copying . . . . .	45
VI. First Reading of Problem 5 by Subject M and Re-reading and Copying the Two Numerals . . . . .	46
VII. First Reading of Problem 1 by Subject Hb and Re-reading the First Numeral for Copying . . . . .	47
VIII. First Reading of Problem 1 by Subject B and the Process of Computation with the First Numeral as the "Base of Operations" . . . . .	48
IX. First Reading of Problem 2 by Subject G and the Process of Adding the Two Numerals . . . . .	49
X. First Reading of Problem 1 by Subject G and the Process of Computation . . . . .	50
XI. First Reading of Problem 1 by Subject M, Re-reading Words, and the Process of Computation . . . . .	50
XII. First Reading of Problem 3 by Subject G and the Process of Computation . . . . .	51
XIII. First Reading of Problem 5 by Subject H and the Process of Computation . . . . .	52
XIV. First Reading of Problem 3 by Subject W with Partial Reading of Numerals . . . . .	53
XV. First Reading of Problem 5 by Subject G and the Process of Computation . . . . .	54
XVI-XVII. Reading of Isolated Numerals by Subject G . . . . .	80
XVIII-XIX. Reading of Isolated Numerals by Subject H . . . . .	81
XX-XXI. Reading of Isolated Numerals by Subject M . . . . .	82
XXII-XXIII. Reading of Isolated Numerals by Subject B . . . . .	83
XXIV-XXV. Reading of Isolated Numerals by Subject W . . . . .	84

The first part of the document discusses the importance of maintaining accurate records of all transactions. It emphasizes that every entry, no matter how small, should be recorded to ensure the integrity of the financial statements. This includes not only sales and purchases but also expenses, income, and transfers between accounts.

The second part of the document provides a detailed breakdown of the accounting cycle. It outlines the ten steps involved in the process, from identifying the accounting entity to preparing financial statements. Each step is explained in detail, with examples provided to illustrate the concepts.

The third part of the document discusses the various types of accounts used in accounting. It distinguishes between assets, liabilities, equity, revenue, and expense accounts, and explains how they are classified and balanced. It also covers the concept of debits and credits, and how they are used to record transactions.

The fourth part of the document discusses the importance of internal controls in accounting. It explains how internal controls help to prevent errors and fraud, and how they can be designed to ensure the accuracy and reliability of financial information.

The fifth part of the document discusses the role of accounting in business decision-making. It explains how financial statements provide valuable information to management and other stakeholders, and how this information is used to make informed decisions about the future of the business.

The sixth part of the document discusses the importance of ethics in accounting. It explains how accountants have a responsibility to act ethically and to provide accurate and honest financial information. It also discusses the consequences of unethical behavior and the importance of maintaining high standards of integrity.

The seventh part of the document discusses the role of accounting in the economy. It explains how accounting provides a common language for business transactions, and how this helps to facilitate trade and economic growth. It also discusses the importance of accounting in the development of financial markets and the overall health of the economy.

The eighth part of the document discusses the role of accounting in social responsibility. It explains how accountants can help to ensure that businesses are operating in a socially responsible manner, and how this can be achieved through transparent reporting and ethical practices.

The ninth part of the document discusses the role of accounting in the environment. It explains how accountants can help to measure and manage the environmental impact of businesses, and how this can be achieved through the use of environmental accounting and sustainability reporting.

The tenth part of the document discusses the role of accounting in the future. It explains how new technologies and business models are changing the way that accounting is done, and how accountants must adapt to these changes to remain relevant in the future.
