PREFACE.

You ministers, reformers, and law-abiding citizens, please visit the chambers of hell in your cities, that you may get a real eye-opener, and I assure you that you will agree with me in saying, "This is just what I needed, and from this day I will do differently."

Listen, you high-toned, rich society men, judges, lawyers, doctors, officers, business men and presidents. What are you going to do about white slavery? Do you not realize that the fall of your daughter is more bitter because the notoriety and stigma are greater? Listen and play fair with yourself. Look at the sons of your own flesh and blood who have died inside the walls of the penitentiary where the white slaves are serving their pitiable time! I shall not mention any names in courtesy to the beloved mothers still living, and while we waste our efforts in these ways the deadly evil of white slavery is burrowing deeper and deeper into the life of the nation.

How do you like the hitch in your calves? (You may call it neuralgia.) It is a nice reminder of a good time.

Just visit the red-light district and become a eunuch. It may cost you only 50 cents to get in, but before you get through you will very likely have to pay several thousand dollars, and bring endless suffering to yourself, to say nothing of your unfortunate children in the first, second and third generations.

The Cupid of ancient times laughed at the locksmith. At the present time the bacteria of venereal diseases laugh at Cupid.

Will your stenographer think more of you after a year's time? Or any of your employees or associates?

Can your mother, wife and sister say, "He was a good man"?

Believe me, most men spell God "G-o-l-d," and as yet nobody ever could buy a return ticket from the hereafter with all their Gold.

Money can not buy virtue nor health.

I can not say anything too good about ministers, fathers and the priesthood. I mean the real ones, not those who have wrapped themselves up in the cloak of religion.

However, before I get through with the others they will know that there is a living God in Israel and their shirts will be ripped up the back. Who said Amen?
