FRENCH VIGNETTES:

A SERIES OF DRAMATIC EPISODES, 1717-1871

By Miss BETHAM-EDWARDS, Officier de l'Instruction Publique de France. With 12 Portraits reproduced by special permission. Second Edition. Demy 8vo, 10/6 net.

"The volume is an admirable example of Miss Betham-Edwards' facile talent for critical narrative. . . . The book glows with sincere enthusiasm, and is everywhere endowed with literary distinction of the highest order. Better entertainment it were difficult to imagine."—Daily Telegraph.

"The accomplished author of these brilliant sketches has proved in her earlier books that she is not less intimately at home in rural France than in the East Anglia of her girlhood. . . . The book is written with dramatic force, and touched throughout with deeply-felt sympathies, which lend distinction to its chapters. . . . The style is as admirable as the portraits. There is not a wasted sentence or a dull page."—British Weekly.

"Distinguished by an unfailing charm of clear and pleasant reading."—Evening Standard.

"She is deeply and lovingly versed in French life and letters, and she writes with lucidity and unfailing verve."—Daily News.

PREFATORY NOTE

I MUST again express my great indebtedness to French authors, publishers, editors and others for their ungrudging services, one and all having rendered every help in their power. To M. Calmann Lévy, for the choice of a Balzac portrait; to M. Lapret, for a reproduction of Madame Hanska's bust; to Mlle. Louise Read, executrix of Barbey d'Aurévilly; to MM. Paul and Victor Margueritte, M. René Boysleve, M. Joseph Reinach, Mme. Veuve Demolins; also to M. Langlois, photographic artist, I tender my grateful thanks, nor must I pass by the courtesy of Mr. J. A. Spender and other English editors who have kindly allowed reprints from their pages.

M. BETHAM-EDWARDS.
