DEDICATION.

TO THE PEOPLE OF WINDHAM IN NEW HAMPSHIRE,

MY NATIVE TOWN,

and to their descendants in

ALL THE GENERATIONS OF THE FUTURE,

this work is inscribed

BY THE AUTHOR.

PREFACE.

This work is not one to attract and entertain the reader by the fascination of its style and its glowing periods. It was intended to be just what it is: a book largely for reference; to chronicle facts which should be preserved; to put them in permanent form, and make them available to the historical student and to the public. Some of this information I alone possessed. It now appears in print, and is available to all.

This "Supplement," together with the "History of Windham in New Hampshire," and with the recently issued "History and Proceedings of the Celebration of the One Hundred and Fiftieth Anniversary of the Incorporation of the Settlement of Windham, in New Hampshire, Held June 9, 1892," presents as full, as elaborate, and as comprehensive a history of Windham and its people as is any record published relating to any other town and its inhabitants in the state.

My labor in the preparation of these historical works, and in sending them forth on their mission in the world, has been a pleasure, and afforded me the sweetest satisfaction in knowing that others had found in them information, pleasure, and profit. With the publication of this "Supplement," it would appear as if my labor in this line for my native town was completed.

This work is now sent forth to those who wish to consult its pages.

LEONARD A. MORRISON.
