PREFACE.

---

Not of my own motive, but at the request of those who first heard them, these seven Sunday morning addresses are now given to the public in book form. No special claim is set up on their behalf. They are only a piece cut off the web of ordinary work. With one exception they were spoken, not written; and they are now reprinted from stenographic reports.

Believing in the truth of what I try to utter, I am glad to reach as large an audience as possible. This is my only apology.

M. J. S.
