THE DEVIL'S
TEA-TABLE,
AND OTHER POEMS

May the People who've smiled and applauded,
Whom he loves for the welcome they've shown,
And the homes where the Pilgrim has tarried,
Found the numberless friends still his own :
All the hearts of the circle fraternal
Love-linking the infinite shores—
May ye find on the Devil's Tea-table,
A crumb of the Cake Truly Yours,

LU B. CAKE.

DEDICATION.

This book is one that will be read,
Will be admired, and treasured, too—
By that dear one whose faith has led,
Whose love will make the promise true.
And so assured of real fame,
In all the world, for all of life,
(For she and these are one, the same,)
I dedicate my waif to—WIFE.
