INTRODUCTION.

☛ The school laws set forth one of the duties of the superintendent of public instruction as follows: “Sixth, To cause to be printed, with an appendix of appropriate forms and instructions for carrying into execution the laws relating to public schools, and to distribute to each county superintendent a sufficient number of copies to supply each district officer, and to cause the same to be printed and distributed as often as any change in the laws makes it of sufficient importance, in his opinion, to justify the same.”

FRANK J. BROWNE,
