HAND-BOOK OF OPTICS

Published @ 2017 Trieste Publishing Pty Ltd

ISBN 9780649598779

Hand-Book of Optics by Dionysius Lardner

Except for use in any review, the reproduction or utilisation of this work in whole or in part in any form by any electronic, mechanical or other means, now known or hereafter invented, including xerography, photocopying and recording, or in any information storage or retrieval system, is forbidden without the permission of the publisher, Trieste Publishing Pty Ltd, PO Box 1576 Collingwood, Victoria 3066 Australia.

All rights reserved.

Edited by Trieste Publishing Pty Ltd. Cover @ 2017

This book is sold subject to the condition that it shall not, by way of trade or otherwise, be lent, re-sold, hired out, or otherwise circulated without the publisher's prior consent in any form or binding or cover other than that in which it is published and without a similar condition including this condition being imposed on the subsequent purchaser.

www.triestepublishing.com

DIONYSIUS LARDNER

HAND-BOOK OF OPTICS

HAND-BOOK

OF

OPTICS.

by dionysius Lardner, d.c.l.

*ORMERLY PROPESSOR OF NATURAL PHILOSOPHY AND ASTRONOMY IN UNIVERSITY COLLEGE, LONDON.

ILLUSTRATED BY ONE HUNDRED AND FIFTY-BIGHT ENGRAVINGS ON WOOD.

PHILADELPHIA:
BLANCHARD AND LEA
1859.

BOOK IX.

LIGHT.

Sect. Pages Sect. Pages Sect. Pages Sect. Physical nature of light 99 907. Bedies luminous and non-luminous 90 907. Bedies luminous and operatory 10 10 10 10 10 10 10 1	CHAP I	Sect. Page
Sect. Page* 896. Physical nature of light 9 897. Bodies luminous and non-luminous 9 898. Transparency and opacky 10 899. No body perfectly transparent 10 990. Various degrees of transparency 10 990. Various degrees of transparency 10 990. Various degrees of transparency 10 990. CHAP. II. RECTILINEAR PEOPAGATION OF LIGHT - RADIATION RADOWS AND PENUMERS PROTOMS TAIL 12 990. Eight transmitted in straight lines 11 990. Light transmitted in straight lines 11 990. Cause of penumbra 14 990. Form and dimensions of shadow 14 990. Form and dimensions of shadow 15 992. Absolute brilliancy depends conjointly on absolute intensity and distance 16 999. Effect of obliquity of the light 16 999. Effect of obliquity of the light 16 911. Method of comparing the illuminating power of lights 17 911. Photometry 18 912. Photometry 18 913. Ritchie's photometer 18 914. Method of comparing absolute intensity of solar light 19 915. Intensity of light 19 916. Electric light 19 917. Reflection varies according to quality of surface 20 CHAP. IV. REFLECTION FRON PERPECTAL POLISHED SUB- FACES. 928. Law of regular reflection 20 929. Experimental verification of this law 25 930. Plane reflectors 20 931. Evergent rays 22 932. Law of regular reflection 29 933. Energetor frays 29 934. Mintons and specials 25 939. Plane reflectors 29 931. Mintons and specials 25 932. Law of regular reflection 29 933. Law of regular reflection 29 934. Mintons and specials 25 935. Plane reflectors 29 936. Cause of penumbra by two plane reflectors 30 937. Pormation of images by reflecting aurfaces in general 31 939. Cases in which no image is formed 29 940. Conditions under which reflection 32 941. Eiliptic reflector 34 942. Experimental verification of these properties in case of penumbra leaves reflector 34 945. Parabolic reflector 34 946. Experimental verification of radius 34 947. Re	LUMINOUS AND NON-LUMINOUS DODIES - TRANS-
Solies luminous and non-luminous objects 24 ### Solies luminous and non-luminous objects 25 ### Solies luminous and non-luminous objects 26 ### Solies luminous and non-luminous object 26 ### Solies of page of transparency 26 ### Solies of page of transparency 26 ### Solies of transparency 26 ### Solies of page of transparency 26 ### S		004 Tilliusian of sales light by all appears
985. Bedies luminous and non-luminous 9 896. Transparency and opacky 10 990. No body perfectly transparent 10 990. Various degrees of transparent 10 991. Opaque bodies become transparent when sufficiently attenuated 11 CHAP. H. RECTILINEAR PROPAGATION OF LIGHT—RADIATION—BEADOWS AND PENUMERE—PROTOMSTRA. 992. Light transmitted in straight lines 11 993. Cause of penumbra 11 994. Shadow of a body 13 995. Cause of penumbra 11 996. Form and disensions of shadow 14 997. Light diminished in brightness by distance 15 998. Absolute brilliancy depends conjointly on absolute intensity and distance 16 999. Effect of obliquity of the light 16 999. Effect of obliquity of the light 17 991. Photometry by shadows 18 913. Ritchie's photometer 18 914. Method of comparing absolute intensity of Gight 19 915. Intensity of Gight 19 916. Electric light 19 917. Reflection varies according to quality of surface 19 918. Transparency not one comparing the fill of the properties in case of elliptic reflection 20 918. The members reflection 90 were of surfaces in case of elliptic reflection 20 929. Parabolic reflector 36 930. Cases in which no image is formed 32 940. Conditions under which reflected rays shall have a common focus 32 941. Eight reflection 36 942. Parabolic reflector 36 943. Experimental verification of these properties in case of elliptic reflector 32 944. In case of parabolic reflector 36 945. Reflection by elliptic or parabolic surfaces when the luminous point in not in the focus 36 946. Experiment with two porabolic reflector 36 947. Reflection of parallel rays by spberical surfaces of parabolic reflector 41 948. Spberical reflector 37 949. Pecinism and the focus 36 940. Conditions under which reflected rays shall have a common focus 32 940. Perincipal focus of spherical reflector 36 940. Conditions under which reflected rays shall have a common spoint in not in the focus 36 940. Perincipal focus of spherical reflector 36 940. Perincipal focus of spherical reflector 41 941. Deepest black reflection powers of surfaces wh	The state of the s
Second color Seco
859. No body perfectly transparent 10 960. Various degrees of transparency 10 961. Opaque bodies become transparent when sufficiently attenuated 111 CHAP. II. RECTILINEAR PROPAGATION OF LIGHT—RADIATION—SHADOWS AND PERFECTION—SHADOWS AND PERFECTION—SH
CHAP. II. #################################	899. No body perfectly transparent 10	5-40-2-1.500.551.500.946.5280.500.000.
CHAP. II. RECTILINEAR PROPAGATION OF LIGHT—RADIATION—SEADOWS AND FINUMENEE—PROPONDED TO THE PROPAGATION—SEADOWS AND FINUMENEE—PROPAGATION—SEADOWS AND FINUMENEE—PRO	900. Various degrees of transparency 10	CHAP, V.
CHAP. II. RECTILINEAR PROPAGATION OF LIGHT—RADIA- TION—SEADOWS AND FINUMERE—PROTOMO- TRAL. 926. Also and the straight lines. 11 1003. Pencil of rays		REPLECTION FROM PERFECTLY POLISHED SUB-
PROPRIES PROPAGATION OF LIGHT—RADIATION—SHADOWS AND PENUMBER—PROPOMOPTEN. ### PROPAGATION OF LIGHT—PROPOMOPTEN. ### PROPOMOPTEN. ### PROPAGATION OF LIGHT—PROPOMOPTEN. #### PROPAGATION OF LIGHT—PROPOMOPTEN. ### PROPAGATION OF LIGHT—PROPOMOPTEN. #### PROPAGATION OF	when sumciently attenuated 11
STANDARD PROTOMS TRAL 902 Light transmitted in straight lines 11 903 Pencil of rays 12 904 Shadow of a body 13 905 Cause of penumbra 14 906 Porm and dimensions of shadow 14 907 Light diminished in brightness by distance 16 908 Absolute brilliancy depends conjointly on absolute intensity and distance 16 909 Effect of obliquity of the light 16 910 Method of comparing the illuminating power of lights 17 911 Photometry 18 912 Photometry by shadows 18 913 Ritchie's photometer 18 914 Method of comparing absolute intensity of light 19 915 Intensity of light 19 916 Electric light 19 917 Reflection varies according to quality of surface 20 CHAP. IV. REFLECTION FROM UNFOLUMED SURFACES. 918 Irregular reflection 20 Parabolic reflector 36 924 Parabolic reflector 36 925 Parabolic reflector 36 926 Experimental verification of this law 25 927 Linage of object formed by plane reflector 29 928 Experimental verification of this law 25 929 Experimental verification of this law 25 920 Piane reflectors 26 921 Image of object formed by plane reflector 29 922 Linage of object formed by plane reflector 29 923 Series of images formed by two plane reflectors 29 924 Image of object formed by plane reflector 29 925 Series of images formed by two plane reflector 29 926 Absolute brilliancy depends confiction 29 927 All mage of object formed by object of reflector 29 928 Experimental verification of this law 25 829 Experimental verification of this law 25 820 Experimental verification of images formed by object of reflector 29 926 Light transmitted in straight lines 11 927 Parabolic reflector 32 928 Magnified, diminished, or distorted images and which no image is formed 20 929 Parabolic reflector 32 920 Cases in which no image is formed 20 921 Parabolic reflector 32 922 Elippic reflector 32 923 Experimental verification of these properties of image	CHAP, II.	926. Regular reflection 24
TRD.—SRADOWS AND PENUMBRE—PROTOMS- TRD. 992. Light transmitted in straight lines 11 994. Shadow of a body 12 995. Cause of penumbra 14 996. Form and dimensions of shadow 14 997. Light diminished in brightness by distance 15 998. Absolute brilliancy depends conjointly on absolute intensity and distance 16 999. Effect of obliquity of the light 16 910. Method of comparing the illuminating power of lights 17 911. Photometry by shadows 18 912. Photometry by shadows 18 913. Ritchie's photometer 18 914. Method of comparing absolute intensity of light 19 915. Intensity of solar light 19 916. Electric light 19 917. Reflection varies according to quality of surface 19 118. Intensity of solar light 19 916. Electric reflection 20 118. The sumbers reflection 20 129. Pricture formed on wall by light admitted through small aperture 20 120. Deepest black reflectian powers of surfaces when the luminous point is not in the focus 36 921. Progular reflection necessary to vision 20 120. The numbers refer to the top of the page. 120. The numbers refer to the top of the page. 122. Irragular reflection necessary to vision 20 123. Experimental verification of this law 25 933. Plane reflectors 29 932. Image of object formed by plane reflector 29 1192. Image of object formed by plane reflectors 29 932. Langes of object formed by plane reflectors 29 933. Kalcidoscope 30 934. Magnified, diminished, or distorted images in general 31 935. Magnified, diminished, or distorted images in which no image is formed 32 936. Cases in which no image is formed 32 937. Pormation of images by reflection 30 938. Magnified, diminished, or distorted images 29 939. Effect of obliquity of the light 19 930. Cases in which no image is formed 32 931. Eliptic reflector 29 932. Lange of object formed by plane reflector 30 933. Kalcidoscope 30 935. Kalcidoscope 30 936. Magnified, diminished, or distorted images 31 937. Pormation of images formed by conditions under which reflection 30 938. Magnified, diminished, or distor
930. Pencil of rays. 12 901. Pencil of rays. 12 902. Cause of penumbra. 14 905. Cause of penumbra. 14 906. Porm and dimensions of shadow. 14 907. Light diminished in brightness by distance. 15 908. Absolute brilliancy depends conjointly on absolute intensity and distance. 16 910. Method of comparing the illuminating power of lights. 17 911. Photometry. 18 912. Photometry by shadows. 18 913. Ritchie's photometer. 18 914. Method of comparing absolute intensity of light. 19 915. Intensity of sofar light. 19 916. Electric light. 19 917. Reflection varies according to quality of surface. 20 CHAP. III. INFILITION FROM UNFOLDINGED SURFACES. 91 919. Picture formed on wall by light admitted through small aperture. 21 920. Despest black reflecting powers of surfaces. 22 921. Despest black reflection necessary to vision. 22 *The numbers refer to the top of the page.
902. Light transmitted in straight lines 11 903. Pencil of rays. 12 904. Shadow of a body 13 905. Cause of penumbra. 14 906. Porn and dimensions of shadow 14 907. Light diminished in brightness by distance 15 908. Absolute brilliancy depends conjointly on absolute intensity and distance 16 909. Effect of obliquity of the light 16 910. Method of comparing the illuminating power of lights 17 911. Photometry 18 912. Photometry 18 914. Method of comparing the illuminating power of lights 19 915. Intensity of light 19 916. Electric light 19 916. Electric light 19 917. Reflection varies according to quality of surface. 20 CHAP. IV. REFLECTION FROM UNFOLDIBLED SURFACES. 918. Irregular reflection with two porabolic reflectors 20 929. Principal focus of spherical reflector 20 948. Spherical reflector 20 948. Spherical reflector 20 949. Principal focus of spherical re
904. Shadow of a body	The state of the s
995. Cause of peaumbra
905. Cause of penumbra. 14 907. Light diminished in brightoess by distance 508. Absolute brilliancy depends conjointly on absolute intensity and distance 16 909. Effect of obliquity of the light 16 910. Method of comparing the illuminating power of lights 17 911. Photometry 18 912. Photometry 18 913. Ritchie's photometer 18 914. Method of comparing absolute intensity of light 19 915. Intensity of light 19 916. Electric light 19 917. Reflection varies according to quality of surface. 20 CHAP. IV. REFLECTION FROM UNFOLDIBLE SURFACES. 918. Irregular reflection 19 919. Picture formed on wall by light admitted through small aperture. 21 920. Different reflecting powers of surfaces — 22 921. Deepest black reflects some light 22 1 Irregular reflection necessary to vision . 22 923. Series of images formed by two plane reflectors. 29 934. Images repeated by inclined reflectors. 30 935. Kalcidoscope . 30 936. Optical toy by multiplied reflection . 30 937. Skalcidoscope . 30 938. Kalcidoscope . 30 938. Kalcidoscope . 30 939. Conditions of images by reflecting surfaces in general . 31 939. Cases in which no image is formed. 21 930. Cases in which no image is formed. 22 931. Elippic reflector . 32 932. Parabolic reflector . 32 933. Valeidoscope . 30 936. Optical toy by multiplied reflection . 30 938. Magnified, diminished, or distorted images repeated by inclined reflectors. 30 939. Cases in which no image is formed. 21 930. Cases in which no image is formed. 22 931. Elippic reflector . 32 932. Parabolic reflector . 32 933. Valeidoscope . 30 936. Optical toy by multiplied reflection . 31 938. Magnified, diminished, or distorted images surfaces in general
907. Light diminished in brightness by distance distance
933. Kalcidoscope 934. Absolute brilliancy depends con- lointly on absolute intensity and distance
Solution on absolute intensity and distance 166		695 Walaidanaan 30 distance. 16 900. Effect of obliquity of the light 15 910. Method of comparing the filuminating power of lights. 17 911. Photometry. 18 912. Photometry by shadows 18 913. Ritchie's photometer. 18 914. Method of comparing absolute intensity of solar light 19 915. Intensity of solar light 19 916. Electric light 19 916. Electric light 19 917. Reflection varies according to quality of surface. 20 CHAP. IV. REPLECTION FROM UNFOLUBIED SURFACES. 919. Ficture formed on wall by light admitted through small aperture. 21 920. Different reflection powers of surfaces. 22 921. Deepest black reflects some light 22 1 regular reflection necessary to vision 29 *The numbers refer to the top of the page.		936. Ontical toy by multiplied reflection. 30
910. Method of comparing the illuminating power of lights nating power of lights 17 911. Photometry 18 912. Photometry by shadows 18 913. Ritchie's photometer by shadows 18 914. Method of comparing absolute intensity of light 19 915. Intensity of rolar light 19 916. Electric light 19 917. Reflection varies according to quality of surface 20 CHAP. III. REPLECTION FROM UNFOLDERED SURFACES. 918. Irregular reflection 21 919. Picture formed on wall by light admitted through small aperture 21 920. Cases in which no image is formed. 36 942. Conditions under which reflected rays shall have a common focus 32 943. Experimental verification of these properties in case of elliptic reflector 33 944. In case of parabolic reflector 34 945. Parabolic reflector 36 946. Experiment with two porabolic reflectors. 36 947. Reflection by elliptic or parabolic surfaces when the luminous point is not in the focus when the luminous point in the focus 36 948. Spherical reflector 36 949. Reflection of parallel rays by spherical infector 36 949. Principal focus of spherical reflector 36 940. Cases in which no image is formed. 36 941 Eliptic reflector 32 942. Parabolic reflector 32 943. Experimental verification of these properties in case of elliptic reflector. 34 945. Parabolic reflector 36 946. Experiment with two porabolic reflectors. 36 947. Reflection by elliptic or parabolic surfaces when the luminous point is not in the focus 32 948. Spherical reflector 36 949. Reflection of parallel rays by spherical reflector 37 949. Reflection of parallel rays by spherical reflector 36 949. Experimental verification 41 940. Experimental verification 41 941. Lease of parabolic reflector 32 942. Parabolic reflector 32 943. Experimental verification 36 944. In case of parabolic reflector 36 945. Experiment with two porabolic reflectors. 36 946. Experiment with two porabolic reflectors. 36 947. Experiment with two porabolic reflectors. 36 948. Spherical reflector 36 949. Reflection of parallel rays by spherical reflector 36 949. Reflection of parallel rays by spherical reflector 36 949. Reflection of para
912. Photometry
912. Photometer by shadows 18 913. Ritchie's photometer 18 914. Method of compairing absolute intensity of light 19 915. Intensity of solar light 19 916. Electric light 19 917. Reflection varies according to quality of surface 20 CHAP. IV. REPLECTION FROM UNFOLUSINED SURFACES. 918. Irregular reflection 919 919 Picture formed on wall by light admitted through small aperture 21 920. Different reflecting powers of surfaces 22 921. Deepest black reflects some light 22 182. Irregular reflection necessary to vision 92 924. The numbers refer to the top of the page. *The numbers refer to the top of the page.
913. Ritchie's photometer
1914. Method of comparing absolute intensity of light
915. Intensity of light
CHAP. III. BEFLECTION OF DEFINITION OF LIGHT. 1917. Reflection varies according to quality of surface. CHAP. IV. BEFLECTION FROM UNFOLUSHED SURFACES. 918. Irregular reflection. 919. Picture formed on wall by light admitted through small aperture. 1920. Different reflecting powers of surfaces. 921. Deepest black reflects some light. 922. Irregular reflection necessary to vision. 923. Abertation of spherical reflector. 924. Beflection of parabolic reflectors. 925. Parabolic reflector. 926. Experiment with two porabolic reflectors. 927. Reflection by ciliptic or parabolic reflectors. 928. Spherical reflector. 938. Spherical reflector. 939. Principal focus of spherical reflector at middle point of radius. 930. Principal focus of spherical reflector. 931. Experimental verification. 932. Abertation of sphericity. 933. Case of convex reflector. 944. In case of parabolic reflector. 945. Experiment with two porabolic reflectors. 946. Experiment with two porabolic reflectors. 947. Reflection by ciliptic or parabolic surfaces when the luminous point is not in the focus. 948. Spherical reflector. 959. Principal focus of spherical reflector. 949. Reflection of parabolic reflector. 940. Experiment with two porabolic reflectors. 947. Reflection of parabolic reflector. 948. Spherical reflector. 959. Principal focus of spherical reflector. 949. Reflection of parabolic reflector. 940. Experiment with two porabolic reflectors. 947. Reflection of parabolic reflectors. 948. Spherical reflector. 959. Principal focus of spherical reflector. 959. Principal focus of spherical reflector. 950. In case of parabolic reflector. 950. Experiment with two porabolic reflectors. 960. Exper
CHAP. III. BEFLECTION OF LIGHT. 917. Reflection varies according to quality of surface. CHAP. IV. BEFLECTION PROM UNFOLISHED SURFACES. 918. Frequity reflection was unstable burning reflector. BEFLECTION FROM UNFOLISHED SURFACES. 919. Ficture formed on wall by light admitted through small aperture. 21 920. Different reflecting powers of surfaces. 921 Deepest black reflects some light. 22 1922. Irregular reflection necessary to vision. 922. Irregular reflection necessary to vision. 923. Abertation of sphericity. 924. The numbers refer to the top of the page. • The numbers refer to the top of the page.
CHAP. III. BEFLECTION OF LORIST. 917. Reflection varies according to quality of surface. CHAP. IV. BEFLECTION FROM UNFOLUBRED SURFACES. 918. Frequence reflection. 919. Ficture formed on wall by light admitted through small aperture. 920. Different reflecting powers of surfaces. 921. Deepest black reflects some light. 922. Irregular reflection necessary to vision. 923. Aberration of sphericity. 924. The numbers refer to the top of the page. 935. Case of convex reflector. 945. Parabolic reflector. 946. Experiment with two poxabolic reflectors. 946. Experiment with two poxabolic reflectors. 947. Reflection by elliptic or parabolic surfaces when the luminous point is not in the focus. 948. Spherical reflector. 949. Reflection of parabolic reflector. 946. Experiment with two poxabolic reflectors. 946. Experiment with two poxabolic reflector. 947. Reflection by elliptic or parabolic surfaces when the luminous point is not in the focus. 948. Spherical reflector. 959. Principal focus of spherical reflector. 950. Principal focus of spherical reflector. 950. Experiment with two poxabolic reflector. 964. In case of parabolic reflector. 965. Experiment with two poxabolic reflector. 966. Experiment with two poxabolic reflector. 967. Reflection by elliptic or parabolic surfaces when the luminous point is not in the focus. 968. Spherical reflector. 979. Reflection of parabolic reflector. 968. Spherical reflector. 979. Reflection of parabolic reflector. 969. Reflection of parabolic reflector. 960. Experiment with two poxabolic reflector. 961. Experiment with two poxabolic reflector. 962. Experiment with two poxabolic reflector. 963. Selection of parabolic reflector. 964. Reflection of parabolic reflector. 965. Experiment with two poxabolic reflector. 967. Reflection of parabolic reflector. 968. Spheri	916. Electric light 19
917. Reflection varies according to quality of surface. CHAP. IV. REPLECTION FROM UNPOLISHED SURFACES. 918. Irregular reflection	CHAP III
917. Reflection varies according to quality of surface. 20 CHAP. IV. REFLECTION FROM UNPOLISHED SURFACES. 918. Frequency reflection 21 919. Picture formed on wall by light admitted through small aperture. 21 920. Different reflecting powers of surfaces. 22 921. Deepest black reflects some light. 22 1/22. Irregular reflection necessary to vision. 22 *The numbers refer to the top of the page. *The numbers refer to the top of the page.	157 F 7 7 7 7 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1
CHAF. IV. REPLECTION FROM UNPOLISHED SURFACES. 918. Irregular reflection	이 그 그 그는
CHAP. IV. REPLECTION FROM UNPOLISHED SURFACES. 918. Irregular reflection
Surfaces when the luminous point in not in the fields of the field of	ity of surface 20
neffection frame unfolded by the process of surfaces when the factors of surfaces when the funding surfaces of surfaces when the funding point of surfaces when the funding surfaces of surfaces of surfaces when the funding surfaces of surfaces when the funding surfaces of surfaces of surfaces of surfaces when the funding surfaces of s	CHAP, IV.
918. Irregular reflection	Law years, when I have not to be a first of the control of the con
919. Ficture formed on wall by light admitted through small apertures 21 920. Different reflecting powers of surfaces 22 921. Deepest black reflects some light 22 1/22. Irregular reflection necessary to vision 92 92. The numbers refer to the top of the page. * The numbers refer to the top of the page.
mitted through small aperture 21 1920. Different reflecting powers of surfaces 22 1921. Deepest black reflects some light 22 1922. Irregular reflection necessary to vision 22 1935. Case of convex reflector 42 1935. Case of convex reflector 42 1935. Inages formed by concave reflector 43 1935. Inages formed by concave reflector 42 faces 92 at middle point of radius 41 921. Deepest black reflects some light 92 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 2 2 2 2 3 4 3 4 4 4 5 5 5 6 7 6 7 7 7 8 7 7 9 7 9 7 9 8 8 9 9 8 9 9 9 9 9 9 9 9 9
921. Deepest black reflects some light 92 951. Experimental verification 41	920. Different reflecting powers of sur-	950. Principal focus of spherical reflector
1/22. Irregular reflection necessary to 952. Abstration of sphericity	faces 92	at middle point of radius 41
• The numbers refer to the top of the page. • The numbers refer to the top of the page.		951. Experimental vertication
The numbers refer to the top of the page. 955. Images formed by concave reflector. 43
The numbers refer to the top of the page. 955. Images formed by concave reflector. 43		954. Foci. real and imaginary 43
	The numbers refer to the top of the page.	935. Images formed by concave reflector. 43

Sect. Page	Sect. Para
958. Care in which object is not placed	991. Why objects are distinctly seen on axis of reflector	through window-gines 68 principles 46	992. The angle of refraction in passing from a rarer into a denser me-
958. Geometrical principles on which the	dings, has a limit of magnitude explanation of the phenomena de- pends	which it cannot exceed
959. Concave reflectors	994. The angle of incidence at which
960. Rule to determine conjugate foci in concave spherical reflectors 49	refraction can take place from a
961. Case of converging incident cave 59	limit which corresponds to that of
962. Convex reflectors	the angle of refraction in the con-
963. Spherical aberration of reflectors 54 964. Case in which object placed between	995. Total reflection takes place at and the principal focus and reflector 54	beyond this limit
965. Case in which object is not placed in the axis of the reflector	996. Angle of total reflection determines
908. Experimental verifications 50	997. Table showing the limits of possi-
967. Cylindrical and contest reflectors 50	ble transmission, corresponding
CHAP, VL	to the different transparent bodies
REFLECTION PROM IMPERISORLY POLICIES SUR-	expressed in the first column 71
TACM.	CHAP. VIII.
968. A perfectly reflecting surface would be invisible	REFRACTION AT PLANE SURFACES.
969. No such surfaces exist 57	1 Boo. Parallel rays
970. How the surfaces of reflectors are	909. Parallel rays incident on a surces- sion of parallel surfaces 73
971. How light incident on any opaque	1000. Mirage - Fain Mergana, &c., 21.
surface is disposed of	plained
37% Table showing the proportions of light incident on reflecting sur-	mena75 races, which are regularly reflected	1002. Case in which parallel rays are in-at different angles of incidence 58	cident successively on surfaces not parallel
973. Effect of angle of incidence on the quantity of tight regularly re-	1003. Refraction by prisms
Becledensers and access and acces	1905. The retracting angle-designation
974. How light incident on the surface of a transparent body is disposed of 59	or bitedia 70
975. How light is affected to passing	optical experiments through the atmosphere 59	1006. Effort produced on parallel rays by a prism
976. Blackened glass reflectors	1007. Condition on which the deviation explained 00	of the refracted ray abali be a mi-
CHAP, VII.	1908. How this supplies means of deter-
REFRACTION OF LIGHT,	mining the index of refraction 80
978. Refraction of light explained 61	1009. Rectangular prism used as reflector 31 1010. Diverging rays refracted at plane
W/W. LAW of refraction	Burfaces 82
980. Index of refraction	1011. Converging rays incident on plane
tato rater medium	1012. Why water or gines uppears shal-
989. Direction of incident and refracted rays interchangeable	1012. Why water or glass appears shallower than it is
903. Indices of Intraction	1013. Refrecting and refractive power explained
wor. Mays not always best towards per-	1014. Absolute refracting power ex-
pendicular on entering a donser medium	plained 85
183. Index of refraction increases with	CHAP, IX.
986. But not in proportion to it 65	DAPPLACTION AT SPHERICAL SURPACES.
was lable of the todices of refraction	1015. The radius of a spherical surface for light passing from a vacuum into various modia	laken as the perpendicular to
108. How to find the index of refraction	which the rays are referred 86
from one medium to another	1016, Parallel rays
wee. Course of a ray passing through a	denser medium 87 succession of media with perallel	1018. To find the distance of the principal focus from the surface and the
was. A ray having passed through sevaral	centre 88
parallel surfaces, energes parallel to its incidence	1019. Case in which the raye pass from the denser into the rarer medium 88.

1921. Balative position of the two principal focions with a denser maditury. 1925. Solar light a compound principle. 1926. Case of parallel rays passing from alro glass, or view served. 1928. They glass, or view served. 1929. Case of parallel rays passing from the principal focus of the convex surface of a career, or the concave surface of a career, or the concave surface of a caneer, are reflected parallel 1926. Convergent and divergent surfaces of a caneer, are reflected parallel 1927. Convergent and divergent surfaces 1928. Effect of a sphurical refraction grace and inverging and converging form. 1929. Colours produced by combining different rays of the spectrum. 118 1929. Complementary colours. 1929. Complementary colours. 1929. Complementary colours. 1929. Complementary colours. 1929. 1929. 1929. 1929. 1929. 1929. 1929. 1929. 1929. 1929. 1929. 1929. 1929. 1929. 1929. 1929. 1	Best.	P	980	CHAP. XI.
cipal foci. 1023. Case of parallel rays passing from air to glass, or vice servis. 1024. Rays diverging from the principal focus of the convex surface of a denser, are refracted parallel rays passing from a denser, are refracted parallel. 1024. Convergent and sivergent surface of a carer, or the concave surface of a carer, or the concave surface of a denser, are refracted parallel. 1025. Effect of a sphorical refracting surface on diverging and converging rays at the focus of refraction when the focus of incidence is given. 1026. The surface of surface is given. 1027. Less defined. 1028. Three forms of converging lenses—Concave convex, double convex, and plano-convex. 1029. The axis of a lens. 1020. The axis of a lens. 1021. Effect produced by lens on incident rays. 1025. The concern-convex, double-concave and plano-convex, ere diverging lenses of a lens. 1026. Calcurate produced by lens on incident rays. 1027. Less defined. 1028. These forms of the principal focus of a lens. 1029. The axis of a lens. 1020. The axis of a lens. 1021. Effect produced by lens on incident rays. 1022. The setermine the principal focus of a lens. 1023. The concern-convex, double-convex, and plano-convex, ere diverging lenses. 1024. Convey lens which convex and plano-convex, ere diverging lenses. 1025. Sheet length of a lens. 1026. Capter produced by lens on incident rays. 1027. Less de lens with equal radii. 1028. Capter produced by lens on incident rays. 1029. The axis of a lens. 1020. Capter produced by lens on incident rays. 1021. Less for produced by lens on incident rays. 1022. The sect mind the principal focus of a lens. 1023. The produced by lens on incident rays. 1024. Less for more produced by lens on incident rays. 1025. Effect mental proof the indices of refraction applied to complete the principal focus of a lens. 1026. Capter produced by lens on incident rays. 1027. Manord of color light in different rays of the spectrum. 1028. Capter forms of produced rays. 1029. Capter produced by len	1020.		1002
denser medium. 1032. Rasy of parallel rays passing from air to glass, or vice verval. 1032. Rasy diverging from the principal focus of the coavex surface of a cleaner, or the concave murches of a rarer medium, or converging to the focus of the coavex surface of a rarer, or cellected parallel. 1042. Convergent and divergent surface of a rarer, or cellected parallel. 1055. Effect of a sphorical refraction when the focus of incidence is given. 1056. Experimental proof by recomposition. 1057. Lens defined. 1058. The reforms of converging Masses planes. 1059. The reforms of converging Masses planes. 1059. The reforms of converging Masses planes. 1059. The reforms of converging Masses planes. 1050. The six of a lens. 1051. Effect produced by lens on incident rays. 1052. The solid length of a lens. 1053. The conceave-convex, double-convex and plane-convex, double-convex and plane-convex. 1058. The conceave-convex, double-convex and plane-convex, double-convex and plane-convex, double-convex and plane-convex, double-convex and plane-convex, double-convex and plane-convex and plan			88	Sect. Page
denser mediator. 1022. Case of parallel rays passing from alr to glass, or wice served. 1023. Rays diverging from the principal focus of the source surface of a class, or his concern the control of the focus of the convex surface of a rare, or the concern the magnitude of the focus of the convex surface of a class, or wice served. 1024. Convergent and sivergent surface of a class, or several conditions when the focus of refraction when the focus of refraction when the focus of refraction when the focus of incidence is given. 1025. Effect of a spharical refracting surface on diverging and converging responsible to the several surface of the spectrum. 1026. Colours of natural bodies generally compound of the spectrum when the focus of refraction split of the spectrum of light. 1027. Lens defined. 1028. There forms of converging lenses—Concavo—convex, double-convex, and plano-convex. 1029. The ratio of a lens. 1029. The ratio of a lens. 1029. The scale length of lenses of a lens. 1020. The scale length of lenses of glass. 1021. Effect produced by lens on incident rays. 1022. The focus of refraction split of legal lenses—concave—specific several lenses of a lens. 1023. The produced by lenses incidenced by lenses incommend the principal focus of a lens. 1024. Convergence of lenses in the same droes of the spectrum. 1025. Properties of lenses in the same droes of the spectrum of the principal focus of the spectrum of the principal focus of the spectrum of the principal focus of a lens. 1024. Lense for model by lenses in the spectrum of the spectrum of the principal focus of a lens. 1025. The concerno-convex, double-convex lenses. 1026. The scale length of lenses of glass. 1027. The scale length of lenses of glass. 1028. Class of a lens. 1029. The scale length of lenses of glass. 1029. The scale length of lenses of glass. 1029. Class of lenses of glass. 1029. Class of lenses of glass. 1029. Class of lenses	1021.	Second case—onscave surface of a	143	1052. Solar light a compound principle. 116
air to glass, or sice version. 1032. Baye diverging from the principal focus of the convex surface of a career, or the concave surface of a career, or the concave surface of a caneer, are refracted perallel of a career, or the concave surface of a caneer, are refracted perallel of a caneer, are refracted perallel of a caneer, are refracted perallel of dense of diverging and converging grays. 1035. Effect of a spherical refraction when the focus of the concave surface of a condiverging and converging grays. 1049. How to find the focus of refraction when the focus of the refraction when the focus of incidence is given. CHAP. X. 1049. There forms of converging classes. 1049. There forms of converging classes. 1050. The axis of a lens. 1051. The focal length of a less. 1052. The focal length of a less. 1053. The focal length of a less. 1054. The menisteur, double-convex, and plano-concave, are diverging fenses. 1055. The concave, double-convex, and plano-concave, and plano-concave, are diverging fenses. 1055. Experiments which condrain the preceding analysis of light. 1056. Experimental proof by recolours in 113 1057. Lens defined. 1058. Chart and plan to converging conpound a condition of the spectrum. 1069. Chart is a condition of the converging concave, and plano-concave, and plano-concave, and plano-concave, and plano-concave, are diverging fenses. 1057. The concave convex, double-convex, and plano-concave, are diverging fenses. 1058. The concave convex, double-concave, and plano-concave, are diverging fenses. 1059. The sense may be solid or liquid. 1050. Experimental proof by reconsulation of the potential proof in the precious different trays of the spectrum. 118 1051. Lens defined. 1052. Lens defined. 1053. Lens defined. 1054. The pair of a lens. 1055. Experimental proof by reconsulation of the potential proof the proof the		denser mediting	89	1053. The prismatic spectrum 111
focus of the concave surface of a farer medium, or converging to the focus of the concave surface of a rarer, or the concave surface of a rarer, or the concave surface of a chesser, are refracted parallel. 1094. Converginal and divergent surface of a denser, are refracted parallel. 1095. Effect of a sphurical refracting surface on diverging and converging management of the focus of incidence is given. 1096. How to find the focus of refraction when the focus of incidence is given. 1097. Lens defined. 1098. Three forms of converging Management of the focus of incidence is given. 1098. Three forms of converging Management of the focus of incidence is given. 1099. Three forms of converging Management of the focus of incidence is given. 1099. Three forms of diverging lenses. 1099. The off incidence is given in the form of diverging lenses. 1099. The form of diverging lenses. 1099. The concave-convex, double-convex, and plano-convex, and plano-convex, are diverging lenses. 1099. The concave-convex, double-convex, and plano-convex, are diverging lenses. 1099. The concave-convex, double-convex, and plano-convex, are diverging lenses. 1099. The sense may be solid or liquid. 1090. Ease of a lens with equal radii. 1091. Lense may be solid or liquid. 1092. The sense may be solid or liquid. 1093. The mention, double-convex, and plano-convex, are diverging lenses. 1094. The mention, double-convex, and plano-convex, are diverging lenses. 1095. The concave-convex, double-convex, and plano-convex, are diverging lenses. 1096. The axis of a lens. 1097. Lense may be solid or liquid. 1098. The mention, double-convex, and plano-convex, are diverging lenses. 1099. The axis of a lens. 1091. The sense may be solid or liquid. 1092. The concave-convex developed the sense may be solid or liquid. 1093. The mention of the mention of the mean rays of each of the primary of the prima	1074	Case of parallel rays passing from	-	1054, Composition of solar light 112
denace, or the concave surfaces of a rarer medium, or converging to the focus of the concave surfaces of a rarer, or the concave surfaces of a cancer, are refracted parallel of denace, are refracted parallel or defended. 1032. Effect of a sphorical refracting surfaces of converging and divergent rays of the spectrum. 118 1059. Complementary colours. 118 1059. Complementary colours rays of the spectrum when the focus of refraction method of observing the spectrum when the focus of incidence is given. CHAP. X. 1032. Lean defined. 1033. The focus of incidence is given. Chapter forms of diverging lenses. Concave convex, dual plane-convex, and plane-convex, and plane-convex, and plane-convex, dual plane-convex, dual plane-convex, dual plane-convex, dual plane-convex, dual plane-convex, and plane-convex, are diverging lenses. 1003. The focal length of a lens. 96 1034. The sensingual, double-concave, and plane-convex, are diverging lenses. 1034. The sensingual conduction of a lens. 96 1035. Case of a lens with equal radii. 99 1036. Case of a lens with equal radii. 99 1047. Lenses may be solid or liquid. 100 1047. Lunger formed by lenses of refraction in a different terrapic line. 104 1045. Bules for finding the focal length of lense of giass. 100 1046. Conditions which deterring the spectrum in 132 1057. Complementary colours. 118 1059. Complementary colours rays of conserving the spectrum in 160 1051. Lay direct vision in 180 1062. The sense of diverging lenses. 190 1063. The conceave convex, are diverging lenses. 190 1064. The sense of spectral lines and plane-convex, are diverging lenses. 190 1055. Bules for finding the focal length of lenses of giass. 190 1067. Lense may be solid or liquid. 190	1000	Pare discourses from the principal		1055, Experiments which couldrin the denner, or the concave nurface of a rarer meadium, or converging to the focus of the convex surface of a rarer, or the concave surface of a denner, are refracted perallel. 1094. Convergent and divergent surfaces of a denner, are refracted perallel. 1085. Effoct of a spherical refracting surface on diverging and converging of the same colour may have different rays of the spectrum. 118 1086. The substitute of incidence is given. CHAP. X. 1097. Lens defined. CHAP. X. 1098. Three forms of converging fenses— — Moniscus, double-convex, and plano-convex. The substitute of a lens. — Convey o canver, double-convex, and converging fenses— — Convey of a lens. — Convey of the spectrum. 118 1099. Colours of natural bodies generally compound of the spectrum in the system of the spectrum of light. — 1080. The site of interest of spectral fine compound of the indices of refraction of the indices of refraction of the spectrum of the system of the indices of spectral fine convey of the section of the spectrum of the system of the spectrum of th	1040.	forms of the convex surface of a	- 3	1 1005 Programmantal around by secondaria
the focus of the convers unrises of a rarer, or the concave surface of a cancer, are refracted parallel of denser, and shortest surfaces of denser. The concave of denser of the focus of the focu			- 7	tion 125
the focus of the convex surface of a zerse, or the concave surface of a denser, are refracted perallel. 1024. Convergent and divergent surfaces defined. 1025. Effect of a spharical refracting surfaces on diverging and converging rays. 1026. The surface of the focus of refraction when the focus of incidence is given. 1027. Lens defined. 1028. There forms of converging issues. 1029. There forms of converging issues. 1029. There forms of converging issues. 1029. There forms of diverging lenses. 1020. The axis of a lens. 1021. The axis of a lens. 1022. The surface on deverging lenses. 1023. The focal length of a lens. 1024. The surface of substances and plane-convex, and plane-convex, and plane-convex, and plane-convex, and plane-convex, double-convex, and plane-convex, double-convex, and plane-convex, double-convex, and plane-convex, double-convex, and plane-convex, are diverging lenses. 1025. The focal length of a lens. 1026. The substance of glass. 1027. Lenses may be solid or liquid. 1028. The substance of glass. 1029. The substance of glass. 1020. The substance of glass. 1021. Lenses may be solid or liquid. 1022. The substance of glass. 1023. The substance of glass. 1024. The substance of glass. 1025. Experimental illustration. 1026. Experimental illustration. 1027. Lenses may be solid or liquid. 1028. There of a converging lenses. 1029. The substance of glass. 1020. The substance of glass. 1021. Magnetory of converging lenses. 1022. The focal length of a lens. 1023. The substance of glass. 1024. The substance of glass. 1025. Experimental illustration. 1026. Experimental illustration. 1027. Stript of the indices of refraction of the spectrum. 1028. There of substance is principal focus of the substance of glass. 1029. Linguit of the indices. 1029. Linguit of the indices. 1020. The substance of glass. 1021. Lense for model by double-convex of double-convex of double-convex of double-convex of convex of double-convex of convex of the convex of the convex of the convex of				1067. Lights of the same colour may a rarser, or the concave surface of a senser, are refracted parallel. 1024. Couvergent and divergent surfaces of a senser, are refracting surfaces of surface of a surface of the supertrum. 118 1055. Effect of a spherical refracting surfaces on diverging and converging frays. 1025. Effect of a spherical refracting surfaces of the surface of a surface of surfa				have different refrangibilities 117
1093. Complementary colours 118 1093. Effect of a spherical refraction georgical rays 1193. Complementary colours 118 1093. How to find the focus of refraction when the focus of incidence is given 1193. CHAP. X. CHAP. X. PROPERTIES OF LERES. 1027. Lens defined 1193. Converging lenses — Moniscus, double-convex, and plano-concave, are diverging lenses. 1034. The focal length of a lens. 96 1035. The concetyn-convex, double-convex, and plano-concave, are diverging lenses. 91 1036. Chiese refraction 1004. The sheet length of lenses 1030. In the focal length of lenses 1030. Sheet produced by lens on local convexities in the same direction 1030. Chiese for finding the focal length of lenses 1030. Proceeds the sense with equal radii and convexities in the same direction 1030. Except lenses 1030. Proceeds the sense with equal radii and convexities in the same direction 1030. Except lenses 1030. Proceeds the principal focus 1030. Proceeds the principal focu				1053. Colours produced by combining
1025. Effect of a spherical refracting surface on diverging and converging rays. 1026. How to find the focus of refraction when the focus of incidence is given. CHAP. X. PROPERTIES OF LERS. 1027. Lens defined. 1028. Three forms of converging lenses. Concavo-convex, double-convex, and plano-convex of a lens. 1028. These forms of diverging lenses. Concavo-convex, double-convex, and plano-convex, and			90	different rays of the spectrum 118
1093. How to find the focus of refraction when the focus of incidence is given	1024.			1059. Complementary colours 118
1093. How to find the focus of refraction when the focus of incidence is given	1005		ĐŲ
by direct vision 119 1092. How to find the focus of refraction when the focus of incidence is given	1020.			2007 Mathed of absenting the spectrum
1027. Lens defined. 1028. Three forms of converging lenses—Concavo convex, and plano-convex, and plan			91	hy direct wision 110 when the focus of incidence is given	1098.
CHAP. X. PROPERTIES OF LERRES. 1027. Lens defined	25.88			are fringed with colour 119
CHAP. X. PROPERTIES OF LENSES. 1027. Lens defined. 1028. Three forms of converging Mases — Moniscus, double-convex, and plano-convex. 1039. Three forms of diverging lenses. 1039. Three forms of diverging lenses. 1040. The axis of a lens. 1051. Hébet produced by lens on incident rays. 1052. The sheet produced by lens on incident rays. 1053. The sheet seed by lens on incident rays. 1054. The sheet seed by lens on incident rays. 1055. Men refraction of the indices of refraction of the mean rays of each of the prismatic colours for certain media. 1056. Majorator of each component colour, how found the prismatic colours for certain media. 1059. Lense of a lens. 1050. The focal length of a lens. 1051. The sheet seed of a lens with equal radii and convexities in the same direction. 1055. Men refraction of the indices of refraction of the mean rays of each of the prismatic colours for certain media. 1066. Dispersion of each component colour, how found the secondarily simple. 1079. Sir David Brewster's analysis of the spectrum. 1080. The sheet seed of a lens. 1081. Lense may be sold or liquid. 1082. The concave-convex, double-convex and plano-convex, are dispersion of the spectrum. 1083. The oneaty-convex, double-convex and plano-convex, are dispersion of the spectrum. 1084. Case of a lens with equal radii and convexities in the same direction. 1085. Lense may be sold or liquid. 1086. Lense may be sold or liquid. 1087. Lense may be sold or liquid. 1088. Cheomatic appearance of the spectrum. 1089. Lense of word distant of lense. 1089. Lense of word distant of lense. 1089. Lense of word distant of lense. 1089. Lense of spectral illustration. 1089
PROPERTIES OF LERRES. 1027. Lens defined				pound solar light 121
PROPERTIES OF LERBES. 1027. Lens defined		######################################		1064. Dispersion of light
1027. Lens defined		CHAP. X.		1065. Mean refraction
1027. Lens defined converging isbase — Moniscent, double-convex, and plano-convex, double-convex, and plano-concave, and plano-concave. — 1028. Three forms of diverging lenses— Concavo convex, double-concave — 1028. Elight uniformly refrangible, not necessary — 1029. To determine the principal focus of a lens — 1029. To determine the principal focus of a lens — 1029. To determine the principal focus of a lens — 1029. The sneniecus, double-convex, and plano-convex, are diverging lenses— 1029. The concavo-convex, double-concave, are diverging lenses— 1029. The concavo-convex, and plano-concave, are diverging lenses— 1029. The concavo-convex, double-concave, are diverging lenses— 1029. The concavo-convex, are diverging lenses— 1029. The concavo-convex, double-concave, are diverging lenses— 1029. The concavo-convex, double-concave, are diverging lenses— 1029. The concavo-convex, double-concave, are diverging lenses— 1029. The concavo-convex developed the private provided in the same diverging lenses— 1029. The concavo-convex developed the private pri		SECONDOVINO OF TRAINE		1006. Dispersive power
1028. Three forms of converging ichoses — Moniscus, double-convex, and plano-convex to convex, double-convex, and plano-convex — 95 1039. Three forms of diverging lenses — Concavo — convex, double-convex — 95 1030. The axis of a lens — 95 1031. Effect produced by lens on incident rays — 96 1032. To determine the principal focus of a lens — 98 1033. The focal length of a lens — 98 1034. The meniecus, double-convex, and plano-convex, are diverging lense — cave, and plano-convex, are diverging lense — cave, and plano-convex, are diverging lenses — cave, and plano-convex, are diverging lenses — cave, and plano-convex, are diverging lenses — 1031. Lenses may be solid or liquid — 100 1037. Lenses may be solid or liquid — 100 1038. Case of a lens — 100 1049. Every lens which end is convex as a lense on the convex or double-convex are diverging lense — 100 1044. Conditions which determine the magnitude of the image — 104 1045. Images formed by concave lense — 107 1046. Experimental illustration — 108 1059. Linsges formed by concave lense — 107 1069. Linsges formed by concave lense — 107 1069. Linsges formed by concave lense — 107 1069. Linsges formed by concave lense — 107 1060. Experimental illustration — 108 1071. Caromatic aberration of lenses — 108 1072. Structure for the magnitude of the image — 104 1073. Magnitude of spherical aberration — 106 1074. Caromatic aberration of lenses — 107 1075. Chromatic aberration of lenses — 108 1076. Chromatic aberration of lenses — 108 1077. Structure of the spectrum — 108 1078. Relative chemical intensity of the spectrum — 108 1079. Lense formed by concave lense — 109 1070. Structure of spectrum — 109 1071. Caromatic aberration of lenses — 109 1072. Chromatic aberration of lenses — 109 1073. Chromatic aberration of lenses — 109 1074. Caromatic aberration of lenses — 109 1075. Relative chemical intensity of the spectrum — 109 1076. Chromatic aberration of lenses — 109 1077. Scructure of the spectrum — 109 10	V.0000	MA - F. D. 100 - 1	25
dis. 125 1039. Three forms of diverging lenses—Corcave convex, double-concave cave, and plano-convex. 1039. Three forms of diverging lenses—Corcave convex, double-concave cave, and plano-concave convex. 1030. The axis of a lens. 96 1031. Note that it is not determine the principal focus of a lens. 96 1032. To determine the principal focus of a lens. 97 1033. The sent length of a lens. 98 1034. The sent length of a lens. 98 1035. The concave-convex, double-coackve, and plano-concave, are diverging lenses. 99 1036. Case of a lens with equal radii and convexities in the same direction of lenses of glass. 90 1036. Case of a condary pencils. 107 1046. Experimental illustration. 108 1045. Images formed by double-concave lens. 91 1046. Conditions which determine the anguitude of the image. 104 1046. Experimental illustration. 104 1047. Images formed by concave lenses. 105 1048. Conditions which determine the formed at the principal focus. 105 1049. Longitudinal and lateral aberration in different forms of lenses. 106 1050. Experimental illustration. 106 1050. Ex	1027.	Lens defined		or the mean rays or each or the
Concave convex, double concave convex, and plano-concave convex dense concerns convex dense convex dens	1028.	Three forms of converging lenses		dia 196
Concave convex, double concave convex, and plano-concave convex dense concerns convex dense convex dens			04	1009 Dispersion of each component
Corcavo convex, double con- cave, and plano-concave	1000			colour how found cave, and plano-concave 95 1031. The strip of a lens 96 1032. To determine the principal focus of a lens 98 1033. The meniscus, double-convex, and plano-convex, are diverging lenses 98 1035. The concavo-convex, double-consex extra ordered glenses 1034. The she strip of a lens 98 1035. The concavo-convex, double-consex extra ordered convexities in the same direction 99 1037. Lesses may be solid or liquid 1008. Rules for finding the focul length of lenses of glass 1039. Field of lens 1039. Lesses may be solid or liquid 1049. Field of lens 1039. Exery lens, whatever be its form, can be represented by a double-convex of double-convex lens 1039. 1043. Images formed by double-convex lens 1049. Conditions which determine the magnitude of the image 1049. Length of the spectrum 1049. 1049. Length formed at the principal focus 1049. Length formed by concave lenses 1049. Length	10:39.
1030. The axis of a lens	271		95
1032 To determine the principal focus of a lens	1030	The axis of a lens
dentrays. 96 1032 To determine the principal focus of a lens. 98 1033 The focal length of a lens. 98 1034 The meniscous, double-convex, and plane-convex, are diverging fenses. 1035. The concave-convex, double-coacy exercises of a lens with equal radii and convexities in the same direction of lenses of glass. 99 1037. Lenses may be solid or liquid 100 1038. Case of a lens with equal radii 100 1040. Field of lens. 90 1040. Field of lens. 103 1041. Images formed by lenses 103 1042. Lenses formed by lenses 103 1043. Image formed by double-convex in the substantial lense. 103 1044. Conditions which determine the againtude of the image. 104 1045. Images formed by concave lenses 103 1046. Experimental illustration 106 1047. Inages formed by concave lenses 107 1048. Spherical abstration 106 1049. Longitudinal and lateral aberration 108 1050. Experimental illustration 109 1050. Experimental	10:1.	liffect produced by lens on inci-
1033. The focal length of a lens		dentrays	96	VALUE (1995)
1933. The sensineous, double-convex, and plano-convex, sending plano-convex, developed plano-convex, and plano-convex, developed plano-convex, are diverging lenses. 1935. The concavo-convex, double-convex, are diverging lenses. 1936. Case of a lens with equal radii and convexities in the same direction of lenses of glass. 1937. Lesses may be solid or liquid. 1939. Case of secondary penells. 1940. Field of lens. 1941. Lenges formed by lenses. 1941. Lenges formed by lenses. 1941. Lenges formed by lenses. 1942. Every lens, whatever be its form, can be represented by a double-convex or double-convex lens. 1943. Inages formed by double-convex lens. 1944. Conditions which determine the magnitude of the image. 1945. Images formed by concave lenses. 1946. Experimental illustration. 1949. Longitudinal and lateral aberration in different turns of lenses. 1959. Manner of observing the spectral lines. 1959. Manner of observing the spectral spectral lines. 19673. Spectral lines of strifficial lights. 19674. Use of spectral lines as standards of the most part of the spectral rays. 1975. Relative intensity of light in different turns of lenses. 19675. Relative calorific intensity of the spectral rays. 1976. Relative calorific intensity of the spectral rays. 1977. Relative chemical intensity of the spectral rays. 1978. Chromatic aberration of lenses. 1979. Aberration of a diverging lenses. 1979. Aberration of a diverging lenses. 1979. Aberration of a divergible lenses may be rendered achromatic description. 1979. Aberration of a divergible lenses may be rendered achromatic description. 1979. Aberration of a divergible lenses may be rendered achromatic description. 1979. Aberration of lenses and a divergible lenses may be rendered achromatic description. 1979. Aberration of lenses and a livergible lenses may be rendered achromatic description. 197	1039	To determine the principal focus		[1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1
1034. The sneuteous, double-convex, and plano-couver, are diverging lenses. 1035. The concavo-convex, double-cossex keve, and plano-concave, are diverging lenses. 1036. Case of a lense with equal raidi and convexities in the same direction. 1037. Lesses may be solid or liquid. 1038. Rules for finding the focal length of lenses of glass. 1039. Field of lens. 1040. Field of lens. 1041. Lenges formed by lenses. 1041. Lenges formed by lenses. 1042. Every lens, whatever be its form, can be represented by a double-convex of double-convex lens. 1044. Conditions which determine the magnitude of the image. 1045. Images formed by double-convex lens. 1046. Conditions which determine the magnitude of the image. 1059. Langes formed by concave lenses. 1050. Experimental illustration. 1061. Conditions under which contributed lenses may be rendered achromatic may be rendered achromatic may be coloured. 1059. Case of excending penelis. 1050. Case of excendary penelis. 1051. Number of spectral lines. 1050. Spectral lines as standards and of the moon, planets, and stars. 1075. Relative intensity of light in different parts of the spectral rays. 1076. Relative calorific intensity of the spectral rays. 1077. Relative calorific intensity of the spectral rays. 1078. Relative calorific intensity of the spectral rays. 1079. Relative chemical intensity of the spectral rays. 1079. Apersation of lenses. 1079. Apersation of lenses. 1071. Number of spectral lines. 1072. Case of excending penels. 1073. Spectral lines as standards and retars. 1075. Relative calorific intensity of the spectral rays. 1076. Relative calorific intensity of the spectral rays. 1077. Relative calorific intensity of the spectral rays. 1078. Chromatic aberration of lenses. 1079. Apersation of lenses. 1080. Images formed by single lenses. 1081. Images formed by concave lens. 1081. Lenses and of the moon, planets, and stars. 1081. Confidence and selection of the spectral rays. 1082. Chromatic aberration of lenses and situation of l		of a lemmanananananananananananananananananana	28
plano-couver, are diverging formed by concave and plano-concave, are diverging lenses	1033.	The focal length of a leas		40 L
1035. The concave-convex, double-concave, are diverging lenses. 1036. Case of a lens with equal radii and convexities in the same direction of lenses of glass. 1037. Lenses may be solid or liquid. 1038. Rules for finding the focal length of lenses of glass. 1043. Case of secondary pencils. 1040. Field of lens. 1041. Langes formed by lenses. 1041. Langes formed by lenses. 1041. Langes formed by lenses. 1042. Every lens, whatever be its form, can be represented by a double-convex or double-concave lens, with equal radii. 1044. Conditions which determine the magnitude of the image. 1046. Experimental illustration. 1047. Canada and a lateral sherral intensity of the spectral rays. 1050. Langes formed by concave lenses. 1051. Langes formed by she double-convex lenses. 1052. Langes formed by concave lenses. 1053. Langes formed by concave lenses. 1054. Langes formed by concave lenses. 1055. Sense of sight in different convex lenses. 1056. Chromatic aberration of lenses. 1057. Chromatic aberration of lenses. 1058. Sense of sight an extensive source of knowledge of the structure of the eye necessary to comprehend optical instruments. 1059. Relative intensity of lenses. 1070. Relative caloride intensity of the spectral rays. 1071. Relative chemical intensity of the spectral rays. 1072. Chromatic aberration of lenses and the spectral rays. 1073. Chromatic aberration of lenses. 1075. Chromatic aberration of lenses and lenses are standards. 1076. Chap. XIII. 1082. Sense of sight an extensive source of knowledge of the structure of the eye necessary to comprehend optical instruments. 1083. Knowledge of the structure of the eye necessary to comprehend optical instruments.	1034.	The mentecus, double-convex, and
1035. The concave-convex, double-coace extens and plano-concave, are diverging lenses			00
ckve, and plano-concave, are diverging lenses. 1836. Case of a lens with equal radii and convexities in the same direction. 1837. Lenses may be solid or liquid. 1838. Case of scoondary pencils. 1839. Case of scoondary pencils. 1839. Case of scoondary pencils. 1831. Lenges formed by lenses. 1831. Lenges formed by lenses. 1832. Every lens, whatever be its form, can be represented by a double-convex or double-concave lens, with equal radii. 1833. Conditions which determine the magnitude of the image. 1844. Conditions which determine the magnitude of the image. 1845. Images formed by double-convex lens. 1846. Experimental illustration. 1846. Experimental illustration. 1847. Relative caloridic intensity of the spectral rays. 1849. CHAP, XIII. 1849. Conditions which determine the magnitude of the image. 1849. Images formed by concave lenses. 1851. Images formed by concave lenses. 1852. Chromatic aberration of lenses must always be coloured. 1853. Chromatic aberration of lenses must always be coloured. 1854. Conditions under which combined lenses may be rendered achromatic. 1855. Sense of sight an extensive source of knowledge of the structure of the eye necessary to comprehend optical instruments. 1856. Chromatic aberration of lenses of knowledge of the structure of the eye necessary to comprehend optical instruments.	1095
Verging lenses with equal radii and convexities in the same direction	Lond	cave, and plano-concave, are di-
1636. Case of a lens with equal radio and convexities in the same direction		verging lenges	99
conversities in the same direction of refrangibility. 131 1037. Lesses may be solid or liquid. 190 1038. Release for finding the focal length of lenses of glass. 100 1039. Case of secondary pencils. 102 1040. Field of lens. 103 1041. Leages formed by lenses 103 1042. Every lens, whatever be its form, can be represented by a double-convex or double-concave lens, with equal radii. 103 1043. Image formed by double-concave lens, lens. 103 1044. Conditions which determine the magnitude of the image. 104 1045. Images of very distant objects are formed at the principal focus. 105 1046. Experimental illustration 106 1047. Lenges formed by concave lenses 107 1048. Spherical aherration 106 1049. Longitudinal and lateral sherral forms. 106 1049. Longitudinal and lateral sherral forms. 106 1049. Longitudinal and lateral sherral forms. 107 1040. Experimental illustration 106 1041. Magnatrate of spherical aberration 107 1042. Sense of sight an extensive source of knowledge of the structure of the eye necessary to comprehend optical instruments. 140	1636.	Case of a lenn with equal radii and		1074. Use of spectral lines as standards
1975. Relative intensity of light in different parts of the spectrum 132 1976. Rules for fluiding the focal length of lenses of glass. 103 1976. Relative calorific intensity of the great parts of the spectrum 132 1976. Relative calorific intensity of the great parts of the spectrum 132 1977. Relative calorific intensity of the spectral rays. 132 1977. Relative calorific intensity of the spectral rays. 133 1977. Relative calorific intensity of the spectral rays. 133 1977. Relative calorific intensity of the spectral rays. 133 1977. Relative calorific intensity of the spectral rays. 133 1978. Relative calorific intensity of the spectral rays. 132 1979. Relative calorific intensity of the spectral rays. 133 1979. Relative calorific intensity of the spectral rays. 133 1979. Relative calorific intensity of the spectral rays. 133 1979. Relative calorific intensity of the spectral rays. 133 1979. Relative calorific intensity of the spectral rays. 133 1979. Relative calorific intensity of the spectral rays. 133 1979. Relative calorific intensity of the spectral rays. 133 1979. Relative calorific intensity of the spectral rays. 133 1979. Relative calorific intensity of the spectral rays. 133 1979. Relative calorific intensity of the spectral rays. 133 1979. Relative calorific intensity of the spectral rays. 133 1979. Relative calorific intensity of the spectral rays. 133 1979. Relative calorific intensity of the spectral rays. 133 1979. Relative calorific intensity of the spectral rays. 133 1979. Relative calorific intensity of the spectral rays. 133 1979. Relative calorific intensity of the spectral rays. 133 1979. Relative calorific intensity of the spectral rays. 133 1979. Relative calorific intensity of the spectral rays. 133 1979. Relative calorific intensity of the spectral rays. 133 1979. Aberration of a diverging lense 133 1979. Aberration of salorific intensity of the spectral rays. 133 1979. Aberration of salorific intensity of the spectral rays. 133 1979. Aberration of salorific intensity of the spectral rays		convexities in the same direc-		of refrangibility
1025. Leases may be solid or liquid 100	$32500E	tion		1975. Relative intensity of light in dif-
of lenses of glass. 100 1838. Case of secondary pencils. 192 1840. Field of lens. 103 1841. Images formed by lenses 103 1842. Every lens, whatever be its forms, can be represented by a double-convex of double-concave lens, with equal radii. 103 1843. Image formed by double-convex lens. 103 1844. Conditions which determine the magnitude of the image. 104 1845. Images of very distant objects are formed at the principal focus. 105 1845. Images formed by concave lenses. 105 1846. Experimental illustration. 106 1847. Images formed by concave lenses. 107 1848. Spherical abstration. 106 1849. Longitudinal and lateral abstration. 106 1850. Experimental illustration. 106 1851. Magnitude of spherical abstration 106 1852. Sense of sight an extensive source of knowledge of the structure of the even necessary to comprehend optical instruments. 146	1037.	Lesses may be solid or liquid		ferent parts of the spectrum 132
1030. Case of eccondary pencils. 103 1040. Field of lens 103 1041. Images formed by lenses 103 1042. Every lens, whatever be its form, can be represented by a double-convex or double-concave lens, with equal radii. 103 1043. Image formed by double-convex lens. 103 1044. Conditions which determine the magnitude of the image. 104 1045. Images of very distant objects are formed at the principal focus. 105 1046. Experimental illustration 106 1047. Images formed by concave lenses. 107 1048. Spherical ahetration 106 1049. Longitudinal and lateral aberra 107 1049. Longitudinal and lateral seera 107 1049. Longitudinal and lateral seera 107 1049. Longitudinal and lateral seera 107 1049. Experimental illustration 106 1049. Longitudinal and lateral seera 107 1050. Experimental illustration 106 1050. Experimental illustration 106 1051. Magnitude of spherical aberration 107 1052. Sense of sight an extensive source of knowledge of the structure of the eye necessary to comprehend optical instruments 140	1038,	Hules for finding the focal length	-	1076. Relative caloritic intensity of the
1040. Field of lens		of lenges of glass
1043. Experimental illustration 106 1045. Longitudinal and lateral oberration 107 1046. Experimental illustration 106 1047. Inages formed by concave leases 107 1048. Conditions which determine the principal focus 105 1049. Longitudinal and lateral oberration 106 1049. Longitudinal and lateral oberration 106 1050. Experimental illustration 106 1050. Experimental illustration 106 1051. Magnitude of spherical aberration 106 1053. Knowledge of the structure of the comprehend in different forms of leases 120 1053. Knowledge of the structure of the comprehend optical instruments 146	1030.	Diet of least	100	APPER ACCIONATION OF SECURITION SECURITION OF SECURITION O
1043. Every lens, whatever he its form, can be represented by a double-concave less, with equal radii. 103 1043. Inage formed by double-concave less, lens. 103 1044. Conditions which determine the magnitude of the image. 104 1045. Images of very distant objects are formed at the principal focus. 105 1046. Experimental illustration 106 1047. Images formed by concave lenses 107 1048. Experimental illustration 106 1049. Longitudinal and lateral aberration 107 1050. Experimental illustration 109 1050. Experimental illustration 109 1051. Magnitude of spherical aberration 109 1052. Images formed by concave lenses 107 1053. Sense of sign an extensive source of knowledge of the structure of the eye necessary to comprehend optical instruments 146	1040.	Lineway Granad by Januari	103 can be represented by a double-concave less, with equal radii. 103 1043. Image formed by double-convex less. 103 1044. Conditions which determine the magnitude of the image. 104 1045. Images of very distant objects are formed by single lenses must rilways be coloured. 138 1045. Images of very distant objects are formed by single lenses must rilways be coloured. 138 1046. Experimental illustration. 105 1047. Images formed by concave lenses. 107 1048. Experimental illustration. 106 1049. Longitudinal and lateral oberra. 109 1050. Experime#feel illustration. 109 1050. Experime#feel illustration. 109 1051. Magnitude of spherical aberration in different forms of lenses. 120 1052. Sense of sign an extensive source of knowledge of the structure of the eye necessary to comprehend optical instruments. 140	1015	Every tens, whatever be its form.
convex or double-concave leas, with equal radii	1.5000	can be represented by a double-		QCIVALANTANANANA with equal radii. 103 1043. Image formed by double-convex lens. 103 1044. Conditions which determine the magnitude of the image. 104 1045. Images of very distant objects are formed by single lenses must rilways be coloured. 138 1045. Images of very distant objects are formed by concave lenses. 105 1046. Experimental illustration. 105 1047. Images formed by concave lenses. 107 1048. Experimental illustration. 106 1049. Longitudinal and lateral oberra. 108 1050. Experime#feel illustration. 109 1050. Experime#feel illustration. 109 1051. Magnitude of spherical aberration of an extensive source of knowledge of the structure of the even necessary to comprehend optical instruments. 148			error.
1044. Conditions which determine the magnitude of the image		with equal radii	103	1078. Chromatic aberration of lensee 133
1044. Conditions which determine the magnitude of the image	1043.	Isnage formed by double-convex		1000 Tenants formed by storic lenter magnitude of the image		lens	103	rough nimers be coloured 196
1045. Images of very distant objects are formed at the principal focus 105 1046. Experimental illustration 106 1047. Images formed by concave leases. 107 1048. Soborical aherration 106 1049. Longitudinal and lateral aberra 109 1050. Experime#fed illustration 109 1050. Experime#fed illustration 109 1051. Magainede of spherical aberration in different turins of leases 120	1044.	Conditions which determine the		1 1001 Classification and according by according ad
Dermed at the principal focus. 105 1046. Experimental illustration 106 1047. Insages formed by concave leases. 107 1048. Spherical aherration 106 1049. Longitudinal and lateral sherra. 1089. Sense of sight an extensive source of knowledge of the structure of the 1051. Magnitude of spherical aherration eye necessary of the structure of the 1051. Magnitude of spherical aherration 1061. Knowledge of the structure of the 1051 in different turns of Jenses 120 1083. Knowledge of the structure of the 1051 in different turns of Jenses 120 1084. Experimental illustration 106 1085. Sense of sight an extensive source of knowledge of the structure of the 1051 in different turns of Jenses 120 1085. Sense of sight an extensive source of knowledge of the structure of the 1051 in different turns of Jenses 120		magnitude of the linage	104	tenses may be rendered achro-
1046. Experimental illustration	1045.	Images of very distant objects are	100
1047. Images formed by concave leases. 107 1048. Spherical aherration	1040	Experimental illustration	100	1936 사용하면 어린데 생물하게 이 이 사용하다 했다.
1048. Spherical aherration	1046.	Towage formed by concave become	107	CHAP. XIV.
1049. Longitudinal and lateral aberra. 1050. Experime Free illustration 109 1050. Experime Free illustration 109 1051. Magnitude of spherical aberration eye necessary to comprehend optical lustraments 140	1047.	Roboriest aberration.	108	THE STE.
1050. Experime Med illustration 109 of knowledge 10050. Experime Med illustration 100 loss. Knowledge of the structure of the 10051. Magnitude of spherical abscration in different furms of lenses 120 optical instruments 140	1010	Longitudinal and lateral aberra-		1039. Sense of sight an extensive source
1030. Experime five illustration		tions	109	of knowledge 139
1051. Magainede of spherical aberration eye necessary to comprehend optical instruments	1050.	Experimental illustration	100	1083. Knowledge of the structure of the
	1051.	Magairade of spherical abarration
A 2 475		in different forms of leases
			A	12 475

lect.	Page	Sect.	ana ana ana ana ana 😗	age
1084.	Structure of the eye 140	1127.	Example of the human figure	155
1085.	The scierotics and cornes 141	1128.	Example of the human figure	156
988.	Aqueous humour—iris—papil 141	1129.	The eye has power of accommoda-
1067.	The crystalline humour - ciliary	l	tion to different degrees of illu-
enna:	Physician 141	1150	Belative belliance of souldistant	156
1000	The choruid	1134	Relative brilliancy of equidistant tuninaries - Brightness of the
1000	The retina—the vitroous humour 142 The optic axis—the optic nerve 142	l	pleture on the retina	157
1001.	Numerical data connected with the	1131.	Apparent brightness the same at	20.
	buman eye 149		all distances	157
1092.	Limits of the play of the eye 143	1132.	If the distance of the sun were
	The eye not perfectly achromatic. 143		increased or diminished, its ap-
1004.	But must be nearly so 143		parent magnitude would be
1885.	Spherical aberration of the eye cor-	ı	changed, but its apparent bright-	100
1006	Effect of an illuminated object	1133.	hess would remain the same An object may be visible even	158 load.	pieced before the eye 144	11100	though it have no sensible visual
1027.	Image formed within the eye 144		magnitude	158
	Experimental proof of its exist-	1134.	magnitude
	ence 145	200	such objects may coase to affect
1009,	Immediate cause of vision 145	400,000	the relina sensibly	159
1100.	Conditions of perfect vision 145 Distinctness of the image 145	1135.	Intensity of illumination necessa-
1101,	Distinctness of the image 145	100	ry to produce sensation depends
1102.	Effects of distant and near ob-	100	on relative splendour of other
1102	Position of optical centre of eye . 146	11100	Objects present before the eye The image must continue a suf-	198
	Optical remedies for defects in the	11,000	ficient time upon the retina to refracting powers of the eyes 146		enable that membrane to pro-
1105.	refracting powers of the eyes 146 Power of the eye to adapt itself to objects differently distant 147	Barran ee	duce a perception of it	160
1000	objects differently distant 147	1137	To determine experimentally the
1106.	Experimental proof of this power 147	10000	time a picture must continue on	220
1107.	Hypotheses explaining this power 147 Explanation proposed by Poullet. 148	3822	the retina to produce sensation	163
1108.	Explanation proposed by Poullet. 148	1138	The perception of a visible object
1109,	Limits of the power of adaptation to varying distance 149		is continued for a certain time
1110	Case of eyes having feeble con-		after the object is removed from	161
*	vergent power	1139	before the eys	161
1111	Case of eyes having strong con-	1140	. Why we are not sensible of dark.	•
	vergent power	350	ness when we wink	162
1112,	Method of ascertaining power of lens required by defective eyes . 150	1141	ness when we wink Experimental illustration sug-lens required by defective eyes . 250		gested by Sir D. Brewster Why a lighted stick revolving pro-	169
1113.	Power of adaptation to varying	1142	Why a lighted stick revolving pro-
	distance in short-sighted eyes 150	1	duces apparently a luminous
1214.	Causes of short eight and long	2142	Why a flash of lightning appears	100
1115	night	3130	as a continued line of light	163
*	perfect transparency of the bu-	1144	Why an object moving at a great indura 151		speed becomes invisible	163
1116.	Magnitude of the image on the	1145	. Example of a cannon-hall	163 retina 151	1146	Quickness of vision depends on 1117.	The visual angle or apparent mag-		colour, brightness, and magni-
1110	nitude 152	45.00	lude	163
1110.	Apparent magnitude increases in	1744	Conditions which determine appa- rent motion	100
	proportion as the distance di- minishes, and sice servo 152	1110	How apparent motion is affected	163
1119.	Case of the sun and moon illus-	1110	by distance	164
	trates this 153	1149.	Example of a cannon-ball, &c
1190.	Apparent magnitude corresponds	1150	What motions are imperceptible.
	with the real magnitude of the	1151.	. Why the diarnal motion of the	5350 picture on the retins	A PROPERTY.	heavens is not immediately per-
1121.	The apparent magnitude of an ob-		ceptible	165
	Jest diminished by removing it	1152.	Why objects in extremely rapid
1100	from the eye	1789	niction are not perceived The duration of the impression on	165
1193	Section of vision		the retina varies with the bright-
1134	The smallest magnitudes which	1	ness of the object	166 can be distinctly seen 154	1154	. And also with its colour	166
1125	Distinctness of vision compared	1155.
	with the magnitude of the pic-	1000	rounding spare	166
	tures on the retina		Optical toys, thaumandpes, &c	166
1126.	Example of the picture of the full	1157	. The direction in which objects are moon on the retina 155		scen	167

	71	Bect.	1,000.0
1158.	Why the metion of the eye-ball does not produce any apparent	-C65 S S 1 1	Case in which the eyes of the same person have different refractive
1159,	motion in the object seen 167 Ocular spectra and accidental	1195.	Apparatus for comparing the power
1160.	Experiments of Sir D. Brewster	1198,	of vision of the two eyes 193 Method of adapting spectacles to
1161.	Why visible objects do not appear	*	eyes with unequal powers of vision
1162. 1163.	inverted		Remarkable case of vision defec- tive in different degrees in differ- ent directions
1164.	The optic nerve is insensible when	1199.	Camera lucida
1165.	it does not cover the choroid 172 Experiment of Bir D. Brewster to	1301.	Phantasmagoria 199
1166	Why objects are not seen double . 173	1902.	Dissolving views
	Exceptional cases in which objects	1204.	Bimple microscope
1140	The eye supplies no direct percep-	1805	ed to different eyes 201
1100.	tion of figure, magnitude, or dis-	1906.	Magnifying power explained 201 Apparent brightness is diminished
1169.	Manner of estimating the real dis-	1007	as the square of the magnifying power is increased
	tance	1009	Compound microscope 903
	Appearance of the sun and moon when rising or setting 179	12.00	Compound universal interescope of Charles Chevaller
	Method of estimating by sight the magnitude of distant objects 179	33000	Application of the camera lucida to the microscope
1172.	Bingular illusion produced in St. Peter's at Rome 180	0.80	Method of determining the magni- fying power
1173.	Best magnitude may sometimes be inferred from apparent mag-	1212,	The telescope
	nitude	1213.	Gregorian reflecting telescope 211
1174.	The eye not perceiving direct dis- tance, can have no perception of	1214.	Cassagrain's reflecting telescope 212 Newtonian reflecting telescope 212
	any motion but angular motion	1216,	Horschel's telescope 913
ings:	of which it is the centre 181	1217.	Galilean telescope-Opera-glass 213
1175.	Real direction of motion may be inferred by comparing apparent motion with apparent magni-	1919,	Astronomical telescope 214 Terrestrial telescope 215
1178	Examples of the sun and moon 182		CHAP. XVI.
	How the apparent motion of an ob-	5252	THEORIES OF LIGHT.
2.01.11	ject is affected by the motion of the observer	1290.	Ordinary reflection and refraction explicable, independent of the-
1178.	Examples of railway trains 189	51000	_ ories 216
1179	Compounded effects of the motion of the observer and the object	1554	Two theories of light
	observed 183	1223,	Difference of colour explained 217
1180.	Examples of the planetary motions 183	1224.	Laws of reflection and refraction
1181.	Angular or visual distances 184	1095	explained
1182.	Vision affords no direct perception	1920	The luminous other
*	of bulk or form 184	1227	Effects ascribed to its varying
1184.	Visible area	(2000)	departy
1185.	lights and shades	1339	Analogy of light and sound 218 The undulatory theory affords a guishing colours improved by exercise and experience 188		more complete explanation of the phenomena
1186.	Of certain defects in vision 186	6	CHAIN WALLE
1187.	Curious examples of defective eyes 185	i,	CHAP. XVII. INTERPRESENCE AND INFLECTION.
	CHAP, XV.	1230.	Fresnel's experiments exhibiting
	OPTICAL INFERUMENTS.	1231.	effects of interference of light. 229 Phenomena of interference exhibit-
	Speciacles	30%	ed in case of homogeneous light 220
1100	Periscopic spectacles	1234	How the phenomena of interfer- ence are affected by the different
	Spectacles for weak eighted eyes. 189		refrangibilities of different be-
	How to determine the refractive	535535	mogeneous lights
Kir	power of weak-sighted eyes 190 Spectacles for near-sighted eyes 191	1933.
-	AND THE PERSON NAMED IN STREET, THE PARTY OF STREET, S		477

Bect.	Page	Bect.	Page
	computed from the phenomena of interference		ing angle for different reflecting
1934.	Effects of the interference of com-	1271.	Table showing the polarizing angle of certain media 249
1935.	pound solar light	1272.	Effects of reflection on polarized
	Combined effects of inflection and Interference	1273.	Effects of ordinary refraction on 1237.	Examples of the effects of inflec- tion and interference	1274.	polarized light
1939	Phenomena of interference of light	1275.	Polarization by double refraction. 251
	reflected and refracted by their	1276.	Partial polarization 259
1230.	Iridescence of fish-scales, scap-		Polarization by successive refrac-
	bubbles, mother-of-pearl, fes- thers, &c., explained 228	1278.	Effect of tourmaline on polarized light 253
1240.	Newton's illustration of the physi-	1979.	Polarization by absorption 254
	cal laws of such phenomena 228	1200.	Polarization by irregular reflection 254
1941.	Newton's coloured rays explained by interference 229	1292	Interference of polarized pencils. 254 Compound solar light cannot be completely polarized by reflec-
	CHAP. XVIII,	1001	tion, but may be nearly so 255
	DOUBLE REFRACTION.	1200	Absonce of complete polarization rendered evident by tourmaline 255
1342.	Transparent media resolved into two classes	1284.	Effect of double refracting crystal
1943	Single refracting media 230	1093	on polarized light
1244.	Double refracting media 230	*	refracting crystal 258
	Effects of an uncrystallized me- dium on light		CHAP. XX.
ENGO.	on light 232	CHEC	WATER PERSONANA OF POLARISED LIGHT.
1947.	The ordinary and extraordinary rays 233		Chromatic phenomena explicable by undulatory hypothesis 261
	The axis of double refraction 233	1287.	Riflects produced by the transmis-
	Laws of double refraction 234 Positive and negative crystals 225		sion of polarized light through thin double refracting places 261
1951.	All lines paratiel to the axis of	1288.	Cutoured rings and crosses ex-
	ages of double refraction 235	1980.	Method of observing and analys-
12.52.	Axis of double refraction coincides		ing these phenomena 263
1053	With crystallographic axis 935 Case of Iceland spar 938	1200	Effect of rock crystal 264 Effect of Iceland spar enclosed be-
1254.	Description of phenomena of don-		tween two plates of lourmaline 965
1955.	ble refraction in uninxial crystal 236	1992.	Effects produced by other uniaxial crystals
	Table of uniaxial crystals 237 Crystals having two axes of double	1993.	Crystals 266 Effect of biaxial crystals, &c 266
	refraction 238	1294.	Effect of carbonate of lead 967
1957.	Table of biaxial crystals 239 Images formed by double refracting	1995.	Coloured bands produced by an acute prism of rock crystal 267
1200.	crystals 240	1296.	Polarizing structure artificially
1259.	Ordinary and extraordinary image 241		produced in glass, and other
1200.	Separation of the images depond- ent on thickness of crystal 241		media 268
1961.	Case in which two similar cryetals		CHAP. XXI.
1000	neutralize each other 249		ORCULAR POLARIZATION.
1 ZUE	Cases in which four images are . formed by the combination of	1297.	Cases in which the change of the two similar crystals 243		plane of polarization varies with
1963.	Their successive positions 243	1998.	the thickness of the crystal 269 The angle through which the plane
1204.	Position of axes different for dif- ferent coloured lights in binzial		is turned, varies with the refran-
1965	Double refracting structure pro-	1299.	This plane may make a complete
	duced by artificial processes 944		revolution if the thickness of the crystal be sufficient 279
	CHAP. XIX.	1300.	Angles through which the plane is
	POLARIZATION OF LIGHT.	1301.	Effect of smethyst
1266.	Properties of potarized light 945	1302.	Circular polarization in liquids and gases 271
1982.	Angle of polarization	1303,	Magnetic circular polarization 271
1970.	Method of determining the polariz-	Practi	ical questions for the Student 978