PREFATORY NOTE.

THE two sermons here given represent the quality of the preaching of the late Rev. WILLIAM JAMES. Rev. HENRY NEILL, for a long time his intimate friend, was requested to furnish his recollections of Mr. JAMES, which he has done in the Letter herewith published. Rev. W. B. SPRAGUE has also consented to the republication here, of the narrative portions of his funeral discourse. Besides these, the present volume contains two Letters; one of which gives an extended statement respecting his faith and hope, written in the prospect of approaching death.

The volume is published for the sake of his friends, and in the hope also that a wider circle may find in it strength for the spiritual life.
