FUNERAL OF THE LATE DR. PHILLIPS.

THE funeral services of the late WILLIAM W. PHILLIPS, D. D., were held in the First Presbyterian Church, Fifth Avenue, on Thursday, 23d inst., at 4 o'clock in the afternoon, and were attended by a large concourse of friends—hundreds being unable to obtain admission to the church.

A striking feature of the occasion was the presence of so large a number of clergymen, of all evangelical denominations, who came from far and near to evince their respect and affection for the memory of their departed brother in the ministry.

The services were conducted by

REV. DR. SPRING,
" " PLUMER,
" " FERRIS,

REV. DR. KREBS,
" " DICKINSON,
" " THOMPSON.

The pall-bearers were

REV. DR. VINTON,
" " SHEDD,
" " SOMERS,
" " VERMILYE,

REV. DR. DEWITT,
" " ADAMS,
" " RICE,
" " CAMPBELL.

Dr. KREBS delivered the address, giving a sketch of the life and character of the deceased; and was followed by Dr. PLUMER in a few touching remarks.

The impressive services, the sombre drapery, the manifest sorrow of those who were taking their final leave of the remains of him who had baptized their infants, married their young men and maidens, visited their sick, and buried their dead; the beautiful rendering of the hymns (favorites of the deceased) commencing

"There is a fountain filled with blood," and

"How blest the righteous when he dies;"

the tolling of the bell as the mournful procession passed from the late residence of the deceased to the church; presented a scene so truly solemn and affecting as will scarcely be effaced from the memory of any of its observers.

"Thus passed forever from our view
The noble, faithful, pious, true;
But from our hearts and memories never
Can we his name or virtues sever."
