“OVER THERE!”

SOME day we'll join them over there and know
The haunting secret that lights up their face,
Giving their humblest act a touch of grace
As if all saw the vision in the glow
Of Heaven ajar, as, lo, they cry "We go
Comrades in arms of those who set the pace,
Ready to fall if they but win the race
Ere tyranny shall strike the fateful blow."—
Some day! Ah, yes, the long way over there
We too shall tread since they have gladly gone
As pioneers and paid the final toll!
So fear we not, as if in dull despair,
To face with them the bright unending dawn,
Lest saving life we lose all else, the soul!
