[Concurrent resolution to print the memorial addresses on the life and character of Abraham Lincoln, James A. Garfield, and William McKinley.]

Resolved by the Senate (the House of Representatives concurring),
That there be printed and bound in one volume, in cloth, fifteen thousand copies of the three separate memorial addresses delivered before the two Houses of Congress, as follows: On February twelfth, eighteen hundred and sixty-six, by Hon. George Bancroft, on the life and character of Abraham Lincoln, late President of the United States; on February twenty-seventh, eighteen hundred and eighty-two, by Hon. James G. Blaine, on the life and character of James A. Garfield, late President of the United States; on February twenty-seventh, nineteen hundred and two, by Hon. John Hay, on the life and character of William McKinley, late President of the United States, ten thousand copies of which shall be for the use of the House of Representatives and five thousand copies for the use of the Senate. The Joint Committee on Printing are hereby authorized to have the copy prepared for the Public Printer, who shall procure suitable portrait etchings to be bound in with these memorials, and shall use such paper and bindings as will make the volumes worthy of a place in the libraries of the land.

Passed June 26, 1902.
