M.A. LOND.

DEAR SIR,

Authority in the Church has formed the topic of frequent conversations between us during my sojourn in London.

I beg to dedicate to you this 'Essay' on the same subject.

I can hardly better acknowledge your many tokens of friendship than by thus causing you to become better acquainted with my religion,—the source of true happiness and of incomparable blessings.

I remain, DEAR SIR,

Yours affectionately,

CMS. TONDINI,

Barnabite.

CONTENTS.

INTRODUCTION, pp. 1-9.

Progress of infidelity—Impotency of Protestantism to resist it—The State Churches—Probable disestablishment of that of England—What will follow?—Apprehensions for the religious future of England—Manifestations of sympathy towards the Oriental Orthodox Church—Attempts at union with her—Consequences of this reunion if realised—On the contest about the procession of the Holy Ghost, pp. 1-5, text and note. Reason of this work—The discussion confined to the government of the Oriental Orthodox Church—Division of the work—Why we shall speak more especially of Russia—Statistics of the Oriental Orthodox Church pp. 5-9, note.

CHAPTER I.

THE ORIENTAL ORTHODOX CHURCH IS ACTUALLY SO GOVERNED AS NOT TO ALLOW OF HER BEING CONSISTENT WITH HER OWN DOCTRINE CONCERNING THE RIGHTS OF BISHOPS IN THE GOVERNMENT OF THE CHURCH, pp. 10-115.

Doctrine of the Oriental Orthodox Church concerning her government—The Church ought to be governed by bishops, pp. 10-13.

(A) ORTHODOX CHURCH OF THE RUSSIAN EMPIRE.

This Church is administered through the Holy Synod of St. Petersburg—The Synod likened by the Russians to a Council, pp. 13, 14. (Statutes of the Synod, or the 'Spiritual Regulation,' p. 15, note). The Synod composed of men taken 'from the different ranks of the ecclesiastical hierarchy'—Reasons which suggested such composition, pp. 15-17. Original minority of bishops—Early remarks against it—The number of the bishops successively increased—How this modification was carried out—The present composition of the Synod—Remarks, pp. 17-20. Contests as to the Russian Church being really governed by the Tsar, pp. 21, 22.
