INTRODUCTION

That our world is approaching a momentous crisis is believed by thoughtful men in all conditions of life. Intelligent and great divine, spiritual minds can not escape this conviction. There may be difference of opinion as to how near the crisis may be, also as to just how it will be ushered in and as to many of its final consequences, but many or nearly all are agreed that events of unprecedented importance are impending and the social order existing now is likely to be revolutionized.

The prophets of God in all ages have foreseen and foretold the dawn of the Golden Age and the ultimate establishment of the Kingdom of God in visible glory upon the earth, the universal triumphant righteousness in this world and as a result of the spiritual transformation poor humanity will be delivered from the bondage of corruption into a glorious liberty of the children of God.

The conviction is also growing among thinking men that the approach of that Golden Age which has been the dream of poets and visions of devout prophets through the ages, is not such a far off divine event some would like to have it, but that it is ever imminent, likely to occur at any time. According to the Scriptures the dawning of the age so long foretold by prophecy and so long hoped for by devout men in all the world awaits the return of Jesus Christ to our earth to consummate His redemption purposes and to gather in the final harvest of His redeeming work in this world.

NOTES FROM JESSE FOREST SILVERS ON THE SCRIPTURES—LORD'S RETURN, P. 9

Jesus ascended to Heaven; His disciples saw Him go; while they beheld He was taken up and a CLOUD received Him out of their sight (Acts 1:9). Not a rain cloud, but it is a cloud of ANGELS, and where this word is used in all the meetings of Jesus in the air and a cloud received Him out of their sight, etc. Jesus will return. To lone disciples gazing upward, ANGELS SPEAK THESE PRECIOUS WORDS, "THIS SAME JESUS WHICH IS TAKEN FROM YOU INTO HEAVEN SHALL COME IN LIKE MANNER AS YE HAVE SEEN HIM GO INTO HEAVEN." (Acts 1:11.) In the Scriptures it is written, "I will return." (Acts 15:16.) Jesus said to His disciples, "I will come again." (John 14:31.)

We know how a fond and affectionate maiden looks seaward to watch for a ship's return. We have seen how grateful nations have welcomed their heroes home; even so come Lord Jesus (Rev. 22:20). The people of God are deeply interested in the coming back to earth of Him who sweat great drops of blood under the olive trees of old Gethsemane and stained the stones of Calvary with blood from His broken heart that He might save their souls from the bitter pangs of eternal death. While the day and hour of the Lord's return is not revealed to enquiring man, the leading missionaries and evangelists of the world believe the time is drawing near.

A proud and stately SHIP speeds onward in darkness and a gay and thoughtless multitude revels in peace and safety while sudden destruction lies ahead. God help us to sound a faithful warning and push to the rescue of perishing souls. The time is short.

NOTES BY THE COMPILER

I trust the Holy Spirit has prompted me in preparing this work on a subject dear to all who love the Lord and His appearing. For fifteen years or more the thought of looking into the prophecy and try-
