Some Lyric Gems within you'll find,
(A copyrighted version),
Which I inscribe to all my kind —
Angora, Coon and Persian.

And to my humbler friends as well,
(To slight them would be shabby),
The Maltese and the Tortoise-shell,
The common Tom and Tabby.

ELIZA EXPLAINS

I'm not a candidate for Fame,
I have no wish to win a name
Or make a public stir;
Toward comfort my ambition runs,
My tastes are all domestic ones —
Yes, indeed — puurr-r-r-r.

But there are certain small events
And unrecorded incidents
To which I might refer,
As well as sundry points of view
Which I consider rather new —
Yes, indeed — puurr-r-r-r.
