PREFACE.

The Registers of Tarrant Hinton, down to 1812, are contained in five Volumes, as follow :—

Volume I has been sadly mutilated, many pages having been entirely cut out, as detailed below. It is made of parchment, measuring 13 in. long by 6½ in. wide, but has no cover. Baptisms commence in 1545 and continue to 1601, when two pages have been cut out which contained entries from 1601 to 1621. From 1621 they continue to 1718, when from 1719 to 1728 baptismal entries are wanting. Burials range from 1545 to 1688, when nine pages have been cut out containing entries from 1688 to 1728. Marriages from 1585 to 1612 were likewise included on these nine pages, so that they commence only in 1613 and continue to 1714. From 1714 to 1729 they have also been cut out.

Volume II contains seventeen parchment leaves, and measures 13 in. long by 8 in. wide, and is bound in parchment. The Baptisms, Burials and Marriages are mixed together from 1729 to 1754, when the latter are continued in a separate volume as is usual at this period. The Baptisms and Burials are continued from 1755 to 1783.

Volume III is a thin book of four parchment leaves of same dimensions as Volume II, and is bound in calf. It contains Baptisms and Burials from 1783 to 1799.

Volume IV contains seventeen parchment leaves used, the remainder being blank. It measures the same as Volumes II and III, and is bound in calf and lettered outside TARRANT HINTON—Rev. T. Diggle—Rector—1799. It contains Baptisms and Burials from 1799 to 1812.

Volume V measures 16 in. long by 11 in. wide, and contains the usual printed forms of Banns and of Marriages. The former, from 1754 to 1809, occupy eleven pages at the beginning of the Volume, the remainder being unused, and further on the Marriages from 1754 to 1812 occupy twenty-two pages, the remainder being unused. This Volume is bound in calf.

The transcript of this Register was made by the late Rector, the Rev. Alfred Stilgoe Newman, in 1895, when he expressed to the Editor his great desire to see it printed. His widow, to whom the thanks of the Society are due, placed the manuscript in the hands of the Parish Register Society for this purpose. By the permission of the present Rector, the Rev. E. J. Heriz-Smith, the printed register has been collated with the originals.
