P R E F A C E .

IN the story of ELLA, the young reader will learn something of the universal duty of GROWING BETTER. Like the other stories of this series, it is intended for both boys and girls; and it is affectionately commended to all children, whether good or bad; but particularly to those who are sensible that they are not quite so exemplary in their conduct as they might be, and who are willing to consider the subject of "turning over a new leaf."
