DEDICATION

(To Louis)

*Take my heart in a book;
Take strength that is born of pain,
And take me again and again
In a sigh or a look.*

*Joy's come—it will abide—
Washed clean by unwilling tears.
I give thanks to the struggling years;
I have grown at your side.*

For the privilege of reprinting many of the poems in this volume, the author thanks the editors of The Century, The Bookman, The Liberator, Poetry: A Magazine of Verse, The Measure, The Smart Set, The Broom, The Literary Review, The Double Dealer, The Menorah Journal, "The Enchanted Years" and An American Miscellany—1920.
